Expect Neutral Nation To Ask Blockade Hoist

PARIS (CP) — Western sources said today they expect one of the "Little Six" countries will ask the Security Council Friday to recommend lifting of "Russia's Berlin blockade." Canada is a member of this group. A resolution to this effect is understood to be already in draft.

OTHER QUESTIONS TOO
The informants said they understood the plan was to call upon the Council simultaneously to stress the need for an early meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers' council to settle both the Berlin and the all-German questions. However, France's Security Council delegate, Alexander Parodi, was reported to have expressed uneasiness about having any resolution on the Berlin crisis submitted to the Security Council at all.

Such a move, Parodi was reported, to have told his U.S. and British colleagues, would only have the effect of slamming one of the last doors between east and west.

The informants said the Frenchman had made it clear he was speaking for himself rather than for his government.

The Security Council, which Tuesday heard the United States charge Russia was tightening the Berlin blockade even as the council took up the case, will convene again on the issue Friday.

Pitched Battle Expected As Korean Rebels On March

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — A pitched battle between loyal and insurgent Korean soldiers was expected in the extreme southern part of Korea tonight where a rebel band of soldiers killed or captured 100 policemen at two towns.

Martial law was declared in South Korea—the U.S. zone—by Home Minister T. Y. Yoon shortly after President Syngman Rhee had returned from Japan.

SPREAD RAPIDLY
The uprising began at Yosu on the south coast and spread quickly to Suwon, 12 miles away. Yoon said the rebels were led by Communist soldiers.

Police stations of both towns were burned. Loyal soldiers at Yosu were evacuated by the Korean coast guard after the uprising.

The growing insurgent force was reported marching on Kwangju, capital of south Cholla Province.

Troops and Korean police were sent to meet them. Government authorities expected a battle during the night, but because of the remoteness of the area reports from there were not expected until later.

RED CELL BLAMED
Yoon said the rebel force might number 4,000 men. He said a Communist cell among 2,500 Korean soldiers based at Yosu was to blame for the uprising, which started after the arrest of the cell leader.

SEIZED TRAIN
After subduing the police at Yosu, the rebels, then 600 to 800 strong, commandeered a train and advanced on Suwon, Yoon said. By mid-afternoon, the Home Minister said, the Suwon police were overcome, and the growing

Negev Battlefront Flares Up In Spite Of Council's Order

TEL AVIV (CP) — The Negev battle front was officially reported to have flamed into new violence tonight, more than 24 hours after the United Nations' Security Council had ordered that firing cease.

A spokesman for the Israel army confirmed that fresh fighting had broken out in southern Palestine. Air and ground action between Israeli and Egyptian forces was renewed as the Israeli state council met for four hours without reaching a decision on whether to pass the cease-fire order on to Jewish troops.

The Israeli government received the order today. It appeared the Jewish army already had accomplished its major objectives.

REPORTS AGGRESSION
(Egypt also received official notification of the cease-fire order. Premier Mahmoud Nokrashi Pasha told newspaper men in Cairo "Jewish aggression" continued this morning. He said the United Nations' order did not fix any deadline and he understood this would be set by the acting mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche.)

The Israeli air force Tuesday night again bombed Gaza in an attack described as "heavy and successful." Jewish planes also struck Beersheba, El Arish, Majdal and Biet Jibrin.

Fires In U.S. Homes Claim Seven Lives

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Three persons were burned to death in a fire that swept a brick rooming house here early today.

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Three small children, trapped in an upstairs hallway, were burned to death last night when fire destroyed their home.

NEW YORK (AP) — Breaking away from rescuers, a six-year-old girl ran back into her blazing Brooklyn home and died in the flames Tuesday. Her mother and three sisters were rescued.

Fishboat Foundering

ASTORIA, Ore. (AP) — The fishing vessel Seorose radioed today she was foundering off the Oregon coast, but three other vessels were reported standing by to help her. The Seorose was taking water and was in a "sinking condition."

Reds Lose General

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Chinese Communist radio today confirmed that one of its best artillery officers, Moscow-trained Gen. Chu Jui, was killed in South Manchuria early this month.

The Chinese government reported two weeks ago that Chu had been killed while directing an artillery attack on Chinsun, Government base taken by the Reds last week.

Inquest Monday On Westholme Deaths

DUNCAN — Coroner A. E. Green has set Monday afternoon at 2 for the inquest to be held in Duncan in connection with the death of Shirley Ann McLellan, 9, and her sister, Sharon Irene, 4½, who perished in the flames which destroyed their home on Mt. Sicker Road, Westholme, early Saturday morning.

Satisfied In Ontario

SUDBURY, Ont. (CP) — Displaced persons working in northern Ontario are well satisfied with the living quarters supplied them, local officers of the National Employment Service said today.

Only an occasional complaint has been received and men who worked in the bush last fall are returning to the lumber camps this year, the officials said.

Most of the D.P.'s in the north prefer bush work to other forms of employment.

Marshall On Visit To Greece

The U.S. Secretary of State (right) is shown being greeted by Prime Minister Themistocles Sofoulis of Greece on his arrival in Athens by plane. Mr. Marshall made a brief personal study of reports that Communist guerrilla forces are stronger now than when the United States first extended aid to Greece. He is back in Paris now, attending the U.N. sessions.

Attlee Tells Other Chiefs Of Britain's Defence Plans

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Attlee, as chairman of the cabinet defence committee, today gave the Commonwealth Prime Ministers' meeting a review of Britain's program of rearming to help preserve peace in an unsettled world.

Louis St. Laurent, who is representing Canada, and other Commonwealth representatives, were expected to participate in the discussion on defence, scheduled to occupy the day.

The position and the potentialities of Commonwealth countries in defence were listed for consideration along with questions of atomic resources and safeguards.

Legion Asks Probe Of Four Frenchmen

VANCOUVER (CP) — The British Columbia division of the Canadian Legion has demanded an investigation of the four alleged Vichy collaborators who were granted special cabinet permission to stay in Canada. Bernard Isman, president, said there was no reason why some persons should be allowed to enter illegally while others were deported.

Delay Appearance Of Mrs. Perreault

MONTREAL (CP) — Preliminary hearing of Mrs. Christine Perreault, 56-year-old mother of Douglas Perreault on a charge of being an accessory after the fact in the fatal shooting of two constables in a bank hold-up, was postponed today till Nov. 4.

Mrs. Perreault is accused of having aided her son and Donald Perreault, unrelated, to make their escape after the shooting Sept. 23. The two men were captured in Taber, Alta., and charged with murder. A third man, Noel Cloutier, is similarly charged.

Two Soviet Air Force Officers Desert, Fly Plane To U.S. Base

VIENNA (AP) — A twin-engined Russian bomber with two officer deserters from the Soviet air force landed at the United States air base near Linz Oct. 9, U.S. sources said today.

The plane and one member of its crew—a sergeant—were returned to Russian custody. The two officers who said they were fleeing the Soviet Union, were given refuge in the United States zone of Austria.

The pilot and navigator of the plane said they had been trying to escape for "political reasons" for more than a year, the United States sources reported.

The craft took off from a base in the Ukraine on what was supposed to be a routine training flight. The pilot said his maps did not extend beyond Linz.

He brought his plane down on the first airfield he saw after reaching the U.S. occupation zone of Austria, the informants said.

The sergeant was quoted as saying he did not know the pilot's destination until the plane was in the air.

Higher Quality Vegetables, Fruit Expected Shortly

VANCOUVER (CP) — Budget blues for housewives will be somewhat muted with the lifting of import barriers on some vegetables and fruits, dealers here predicted today.

Consumers' food bills should take a considerable drop within a few weeks, they said.

First inroads into the ban were announced in Ottawa Tuesday night by Finance Minister Abbott, who said such action was made possible by improvement in the Dominion's dollar reserves.

Wholesalers said the first vegetables to be admitted from the United States would probably be tomatoes and lettuce. With the field crop almost over in B.C. the new supply would cut the price almost in half. They hailed the move as a "step in the right direction."

MORE CITRUS FRUITS
A release of California citrus fruits, expected toward the year's end, will mean lower prices and higher quality. Imports of these fruits were restricted and the quality poor.

Lettuce will be admitted early in November, along with tomatoes. At present "tag-ends" of lettuce are of poor quality, and sell at 12 to 13 cents a head. New supplies will not affect prices, dealers said, but the quality will improve.

Grape fanciers will get a break, and celery will be plentiful.

Senator Donnelly, Near 82nd Birthday, Dies In Ontario

OWEN SOUND, Ont. (CP) — Senator James J. Donnelly, dean of the Canadian Senate, died today. He was born Nov. 14, 1866, and had been a member of the Senate for 35 years and held office longer than any other member.

A Conservative, he was appointed to the red chamber in 1913, at the same time as E. D. Smith, who died last week in Winona after resigning from the Senate.

Senator Donnelly attended the last session of the Senate, but had been ill at his home at nearby Pinkerton for the last three weeks.

LEAVES 20 CONSERVATIVES

OTTAWA (CP) — Progressive Conservative representation in the Senate was narrowed to 20 today with death of Senator J. J. Donnelly in Pinkerton, Ont. The Liberals hold 63 of the 96 seats and 13 are vacant.

Hints Four Frenchmen Here Unlikely To Go Willingly

TORONTO (CP) — The Globe and Mail, in a telephone interview with Dr. Andre Emmanuel Bousat, one of the central figures in Canada's "immigrant collaborators" case, today quoted the 45-year-old French surgeon as saying he wished to remain in the Dominion, become a citizen, work hard and take no part in politics.

One of four French immigrants, accused of being Nazi collaborators but permitted to remain in Canada, Dr. Bousat said in the interview that the "legitimate" French government had no interest in extradition of the quartette. The accusations against them "probably came from Maurice Thorez, French Communist leader."

"Were you a collaborator?" Dr. Bousat was asked. "Absolutely not," he replied. "How did these accusations originate?"

"The Communists considered all anti-Communists to be collaborators," Dr. Bousat said.

Urged To Defend Own Honor
OTTAWA (CP) — French Ambassador Francisque Gay Tuesday suggested to acting Prime Minister Howe that four French "political refugees" in Canada should return to France to defend their honor by standing trial on charges of wartime collaboration.

Both Mr. Howe and the French Ambassador issued statements confirming that France has not requested the return of the four men since the end of the Second World War.

Three of the men were admitted to this country after immigration officials had ordered them deported. An order-in-council was passed.

Mr. Howe repeated in an interview that the case is closed so far as the federal government is concerned and will not be reopened. Mr. Gay's statement indicated the French government has no intention of making any official move to extradite the men.

The four men are Dr. Georges Benoit Montel, 49, a surgeon now lecturing at Laval University in Quebec; Julien Guadens Labedan, 35-year-old interior decorator and cabinet maker working in Montreal; Andre Charles Emmanuel Bousat, 45, a surgeon working for a drug firm, and Jean Louis Huc.

MRS. KASENKINA TELLS ALL . . . . . Installment 21

'Tolstoyites Regard Me As A Soviet Spy'

By Oksana S. Kasenkina
(Edited by ISAAC DON LEVINE and Copyright, 1948, by King Features Syndicate Inc.)

I HAD LONGED for an American atmosphere when I broke away from my Soviet guardians, but I was plunged into a stifling Russian atmosphere when I settled down at the Reed Farm of the Tolstoy Foundation.

Despite the angelic character of Countess Alexandra Tolstoy, who, unfortunately, was away most of the time at her New York offices, I found myself under suspicion and surveillance at the institution—this time as a Soviet spy!

It is with deep pain that I am describing this interlude of my critical days from Saturday, July 31, to Saturday August 7. I value highly the great humanitarian work being carried on by the Tolstoy Foundation for the relief of the helpless Russian DP's in Europe and America, and hope to be of help in this sacred cause when I recover.

Impulsive Letter

YET I CANNOT hold back the truth about conditions that drove me to write my impulsive letter to the Soviet consul general which eventually led to my seizure by him and his aides and to my imprisonment in the consulate.

Upon my arrival at the farm, Countess Tolstoy and Vladimir Zenzinov, who had brought me there, examined my passport and found that my visa to remain in the United States was valid for some time.

Miss Tolstoy then told me that she would get in touch with the proper authorities to insure my continued legal residence in this country. We had a heart-to-heart talk and I was installed in a comfortable room for the night. I was given an assumed name under which I was to live on the farm. Miss Tolstoy also cautioned me not to discuss my affairs and to do as little talking as possible. There were close to a hundred inmates in the place, of both sexes and of all ages and stations in life. Most of them had left Russia in the first refugee wave after the Bolshevik Revolution some thirty years ago and included members of the nobility and the old military class.

I became an object of instant curiosity, especially when I was transferred the following day to the screened porch which I shared with the supervisor of the establishment, Martha Andreyevna Knutson, an experienced and admirable social worker. I was assigned to work in the kitchen.

Looking back upon the events of those days, I now realized that I had arrived at the farm in a highly nervous state. I should have begged off from unaccustomed toil until I had a rest. I knew that my not showing up at the galling of the Soviet ship would lead to a widespread hunt for me. The drudgery in the mass production kitchen, whether it was peeling potatoes or shelling eggs, was irritating. I would have preferred a factory job.

One day Mrs. Knutson even remarked to me: "I can see you're not used to kitchen chores. Who took care of you all your life?"

"I've been a teacher all my life," I replied, "and the kitchen is not one of my specialties." To myself I kept saying, "This is hard work but at least you're out of Soviet hands."

Eyed Me Suspiciously

The inmates began to eye me suspiciously. Every evening they would gather on the veranda and engage in political discussions. I did not participate in them, true to Miss Tolstoy's instructions. My silence gave rise to significant glances.

There were many in the assemblage who did not speak the democratic language of Mark Weinbaum, of the "Novoye Russkoye Slovo", the Russian newspaper, or of Zenzinov, or of Miss Tolstoy herself. These people had inspired me with confidence because of their liberalism. My dream has always been a democratic Russia. I was now forced to listen mostly to talk of a Soviet regime. This antediluvian palaver grated upon me, but I could not answer it.

Then there was constant bickering and wrangling among the inmates of the institution. Every body watched everybody else. Quarrels over petty matters were common. Those who had titles or rank in the long ago demanded that they be accorded privileged treatment.

The atmosphere around me grew more icy every day. There was eavesdropping and finally unconcealed whispering in my path. When I retired at night, and I was during a cold spell, I would lie on the porch chilled to the bone and wracked by insomnia. This seemed so unlike the America I yearned to discover.

Black Auto Scared Me

MY UNHAPPINESS gave way to despair when I spotted one day the Soviet consul's black limousine not far from the farm and his fat chauffeur Semashko sitting on a bench some distance away. I was ridiculed for "seeing things" when I reported this, but I am convinced to this day that I was right. From many remarks dropped later at the consulate I am confirmed in the belief that the Soviet sleuths had detailed inside knowledge of the Tolstoy Foundation farm.

By Wednesday, August 4, my situation became most trying. Everybody was looking daggers at me, regarding me as an enemy within their camp. I was made to feel that beneath my assumed name was lurking a Soviet agent.

That evening the manager of the institution, Moussin-Pushkin, called me into his office and began to shout at me:

"Register! No one can stay here overnight without registering."

I thought that my status had been settled by Miss Tolstoy, but was helpless in the face of Moussin-Pushkin's stormy scene. That

Woman In Hospital After Car Accident

Condition of Mrs. Ethel King, 669 Beach Drive, injured when the car she was driving struck a light pole on Rockland Avenue around 4 Tuesday afternoon, is described by officials at Royal Jubilee Hospital today as good.

The 67-year-old woman is suffering from chest injuries, abrasions and shock, which are causing some discomfort.

Damage to the car is said to be slight.

In other accidents Tuesday afternoon, considerable damage was sustained by a car proceeding west on Niagara Street when it collided with a truck driven south on Menzies Street by Robert S. Russell, Langford. The left rear of the truck was slightly damaged.

At Johnson and Government Streets, a car police say was driven by Charles W. Pomeroy, 1157 Newport Avenue, was turning west on Johnson when it struck the left rear bumper of a car driven south on Government by John W. B. Hicks, Langford. Hicks' car pulled out to the left, according to police, and hit a car proceeding south on Government, driven by Rev. James B. Rowell, 2056 Hampshire Road.

A car being backed from the south curb by Laurence E. Hill, 2723 Burnside Road West, collided with one driven east in Yates between Quadra and Blanshard by Louis Denoni, 824 Walker Street, at 1 Tuesday afternoon. The right rear fender of Denoni's car was torn off.

night was a complete nightmare to me. "Was I in a madhouse or was I going mad?" I was asking myself again and again. Did I escape from Soviet surveillance to be suspected of being a Soviet spy?

I dashed off a letter to the Soviet consul general which, contrary to all reports, I did not show to anyone before having it mailed. I left the farm and walked down the road, stopping the first car going in the direction of town. I handed the letter and half a dollar to the motorist requesting him to post it for me. The stranger was good enough to give me back 47 cents in change.

When I returned to the kitchen, after the car carrying my letter had vanished, I felt pangs of remorse, although I did not fully realize to what extent that letter would haunt me.

(Tomorrow—What resulted from Mrs. Kasenkina's impulsive letter.)

Rochon Puts Up Great Struggle Against Parker

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The eighth seeded players in the Pan-American tennis tournament moved into the quarter-finals of the international meet Tuesday.

Several of the favored players, especially Frankie Parker, third seeded star from Los Angeles, was on top of his game and didn't lose a serve.

Gonzales, the powerful stroking youngster, blasted Brendan Macken of Canada off the courts, 6-1, 6-0, 6-2.

"He was just too much for me," Macken said with a grin after the rout. "He is out of my class, but I tried."

Sturges, who lost only once on service, toppled Francisco Guerrero of Mexico, 6-3, 6-1, 6-1.

Officers Of Manitoba D.P. Camps Deny Charges Of Filth, Misery

WINNIPEG (CP)—Conflicting reports concerning conditions in displaced persons camps in southern Manitoba were heard today as federal and provincial authorities pressed their investigation into charges that the camps were a mixture of filth and misery.

Provincial authorities stood pat on their earlier statement that conditions were, on the whole, satisfactory.

However, a federal investigating group which spent two hours Tuesday touring Emerson camp 60 miles south of here was reported to have said the situation left much to be desired.

H. R. Richardson, director of the Manitoba farm help service, who accompanied provincial investigators on their inspection trip Tuesday, said the tour had disproved charges that filth, squalor and generally unsatisfactory conditions prevailed.

(The Winnipeg Tribune, which precipitated the investigation Monday with a story charging the camps were unsatisfactory, said the report of federal investigators that sanitary conditions were unsatisfactory, food storage and living quarters did not conform with regulations and health safeguards were not generally observed.)

REPORT TO OTTAWA

Members of the federal group will submit their report to Arthur MacNamara, Federal Deputy Labor Minister.

K. G. MacQuarrie, sanitary inspector for the Manitoba health department, said sanitary conditions—with one exception—met provincial regulations. He frowned on the lack of oilcloth covering for dining-room board tables.

"There is no filth in existence," remarked Mr. MacQuarrie as he reported an inspection of the D.P. huts had disclosed no sign of vermin.

Polish veteran George Orlitz, foreman of the Emerson camp, made a "trouble-maker" charge. He said 16 of the 63 men in camp had told him they had no complaints. Those who did, he said, were a small minority trying to stir up trouble.

"Trouble coming—story only bringing police, maybe fighting," was the comment of one D.P. when informed the inspection party was arriving.

EAT ROAST PORK

Boleslaw Miszeal, Polish cook, contended camp food was "good" and threw open an oven door to display roasts of pork.

But in the dormitories observers were reported to have found 15 D.P.s in bed. They were said to be suffering from either dysentery or diarrhoea, brought on through eating bad pork. There were reports of mass illness on previous days.

H. R. Richardson, director of the provincial government farm help service, declared most of the D.P.s had signified willingness to return to the camp to harvest sugar beets next autumn.

At Ottawa Tuesday Labor Minister Mitchell said the men would be taken out of the camps if charges against the conditions were borne out and the conditions were not improved.

Black Marketeers Lie Down On The Job

This is a black market gang at work in Shanghai. Since only about 30 people can buy restricted quotas of scarce drugs, the "Yellow Ox" gang waits all night for drugstores to open, then buys the whole supply. Later, they resell them at black market prices. Same tactics are used for other rare items.

Coast Ship Strike Good For Airlines; Food To Alaska

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Pacific coast maritime strike in the United States, now in its 49th day, has nearly dried up a $4,000,000-a-day waterborne commerce, but has spurred on a huge commercial airlift.

All dry cargo sailings from U.S. west coast ports have stopped save a few ships which carry supplies for the army. Oil tankers are not affected.

While paralysis set into shipping, the contract strike forced resort to the airlift. Pan American Airways reported today that perishable food shipments to Alaska have increased about 100 per cent and to Hawaii about 55 per cent. The air shipment of food to Alaska now is at the rate of 1,000,000 pounds a month and still growing.

On the 375 dry cargo ships operated by west coast U.S. steamship companies, 222 were tied up as of Oct. 15.

Overseas Graves To Get Headstones

MONTREAL (CP)—An extensive building program aimed at replacing white crosses with inscribed headstones is planned for next year in Empire military cemeteries overseas, Maj. Gen. J. H. Roberts said here.

Gen. Roberts, who is chief administrative officer of the Northwest European District, Imperial War Graves Commission, recently returned from Europe.

He said architectural plans have been drafted for the cemetery work and only shortages of labor and materials are holding it up.

A few of the headstones have been erected, however.

Skillings May Lay Counter Suit Against Rink Engineer

A counter action for defamation is threatened by Ald. Waldo Skillings against Charles T. Hamilton, arena consulting engineer, it was learned today.

The Vancouver engineer has demanded a retraction of statements allegedly made by Ald. Skillings in connection with construction of the arena. Mr. Hamilton asks that the retraction and an apology be published in the Victoria and Vancouver newspapers as well as the official publication of the B.C. Engineering Society.

Otherwise court action may be taken as the engineer feels statements attributed to Ald. Skillings have damaged his (Mr. Hamilton's) professional reputation and have caused him to suffer severe financial loss.

Ald. Skillings said Tuesday he would fight any action Mr. Hamilton might start, and it was learned that he, through his solicitor, George Gregory, has informed Mr. Hamilton's solicitors that he may take counter action against the engineer.

Ald. Skillings believes he has a case against Mr. Hamilton hinging on statements the engineer reportedly made at the City Council arena inquiry in connection with settlement of a claim of Bennett and White Construction Company, on an arena contract.

Mr. Hamilton objects to reports that Ald. Skillings made statements to the effect he no longer had faith in engineers on the arena project, and that the engineer had made a seriously erroneous estimate for completing the arena and on concrete yardage.

Ontario Man Held Without Bail As Mystery Probed

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP)—William G. Stuart today was remanded until Oct. 27 without bail on a public mischief charge arising from the disappearance last Sept. 13 of Mrs. Emma Pohl of nearby Sunnyside.

The 30-year-old Stuart engaged Paul A. Dufresne, Galt, Ont., as counsel shortly before this morning's hearing. Crown Attorney W. P. Clement said he would have to give the matter of bail serious consideration.

Stuart is believed to be the last person who saw Mrs. Pohl before she vanished. Police said they had held him on the mischief charge because they doubted some of the statements he had made under questioning.

The 37-year-old Mrs. Pohl walked out of her home here five weeks ago without finishing her washing.

Police have questioned Stuart since they arrested him Oct. 1.

200 Members Of Commerce Chamber Coming To B.C. Coast

WINNIPEG—With more than 200 members of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce on board, two special Canadian National Railway trains will depart from Winnipeg Thursday evening en route to Vancouver, where the 19th annual meeting of the C. of C. is to be held Oct. 26, 27 and 28.

Another 75 members will board the specials at Winnipeg and other points along the way. Headed by C. Bruce Hill of St. Catharines, Ont., president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, the group will comprise leaders of industry and commerce throughout the Dominion.

A highlight of the trip this year will be the revival of the custom established prior to the war when the Chamber of Commerce sponsored regular inspection and sightseeing tours which included one-day stopovers at various centres en route. This year the two special trains will stop over at Saskatoon, Edmonton and Jasper. At the latter point, the delegates will attend church service, following which they will be taken on a tour of Jasper National Park and Jasper Park Lodge. At each point to the coast they will be officially welcomed by officials of the Chamber of Commerce.

Saved By Confession

BOONEVILLE, Mo. (AP)—Robert S. Oswald, 15, was acquitted Tuesday of a second-degree murder charge in the strangulation of a prisoner at the Missouri State Training School. John Hicks testified he choked Roland Barton to death last Jan. 18 while all three were at the school, and that Oswald had nothing to do with the slaying. Hicks was serving a 10-year sentence for the murder.

UNITED NATIONS DAY

IN THESE DAYS OF INTERNATIONAL unrest the eyes of the peoples of the world are turning with more and more anxiety to the United Nations Organization—that global body that was created as the Second World War came to a close in an effort to ensure that such a ghastly conflict should never again threaten civilization. Peace was the central theme of the United Nations' idea, and from it branched the many auxiliary groups that with greater or lesser success have tackled the problems of economics, finance, relief, agriculture, health, labor, trade and other facets of mankind's affairs. Such efforts have in many cases resulted in much progress. There has been evident a willingness and ability on the part of the nations to blend their endeavors to achieve a common goal.

But despite the gains in some directions, the effort for peace, as developed in the Security Council and the General Assembly, has been beset by many difficulties. It is true that no major war has broken out since the formation of the United Nations—although there has been a number of localized conflicts—but this may be due as much to the temporary exhaustion of national war-making powers as to the strivings of the diplomats. The fact remains, however, that the United Nations is still the only organized hope of the world today for the maintenance of peace. Although the meetings have tended to become a place for the publication of inflammatory rhetoric, a sounding board for political theories and attacks, they still constitute the chief recognized facility for contact between the governments of the globe in their attempts to solve international disputes.

For this reason, if for no other, the support of every one of the world's 2,000,000,000 people should be accorded the United Nations. Every citizen of every country should follow the debates and conferences of the U.N. Each should have at least a general idea of what is being done and what the U.N. is trying to accomplish. The actions of this body may easily have much more importance to the life of each one of us than those of our local or national governments. On the success or failure of the international body may depend life itself.

Next Sunday, peace-loving folk of the world will observe United Nations Day. In Canada, addresses will be delivered over the national network by government and other spokesmen. The Victoria branch of the United Nations' Association will sponsor an address by Dr. J. M. Ewing, principal of Victoria College, at Prince Robert Auditorium on Monday evening. Churches and schools will mark the day with appropriate exercises designed to impress on the public consciousness the importance of this global agency. For every resident who values world peace and security this is an opportunity to demonstrate interest and support.

SPEAKING OF YOUTH

GREATER VICTORIA HAS A HEALTHY regard for its young people. With relatively few exceptions, the trust placed in adolescents here has been justified. There have been occasional instances of rowdiness and infrequent vandalism laid at the door of the "teen-agers," but by and large the youngsters of the community have shown a sensible appreciation for the considerations extended to them.

Not that our juveniles wear halos, or escape entirely the apparently universal inclination to be smart alecks when they reach a certain age. They are, to a large degree, little different from their fathers and mothers when they were in their agonizing teens. They are probably a little more bumptious, a little more assertive, and a little more inclined to be vocal in their criticism of their elders. But in youth activities, they have shown a willingness to follow responsible leadership and to live as good young citizens should live.

It is a matter of some importance, however, that thought be given to an underlying trend in adolescence which has been emphasized by an influential Toronto paper as a result of obnoxious indiscretion and outright rudeness by certain students in that city. The instance in question arose from rowdy behaviour by an audience of high school and university students who attended two Shakespearean productions. The behaviour of the young audience was roundly censured by the newspaper. It continued with a discussion of tendencies which have created the condition exemplified by the poor behaviour of the students:

"Chief among these is the absurd over-emphasis on youth and 'teen-agers,' which has given these children an excessively inflated opinion of themselves. The press, commerce, the movies and a large class of sentimental adults have made such a fabulous fuss over the rights and privileges of the very young, that it is not surprising we have produced a generation which thinks it owns the earth.

"They are not to blame for our failure in training, but unless we are able to get our perspective back and keep values in proportion, the young people are going to find real life a bitter meal after the feast they have enjoyed too long."

The point is well taken. Far be it from us to suggest the child should be seen and not heard. The young people have certain rights—but they do not extend to the point where they should interfere with the rights of others. And if they fail to learn courtesy at an early age, when will they learn it?

Let those who will have their boys' weeks, their boy mayors, boy editors and boy leaders. But let us keep things in perspective and help the children to realize that they are not the only important inhabitants of the globe. And let us assist them to acquire the good manners they must understand in order to teach the following generation not to be too hard on them when the current adolescents graduate to maturity.

NEEDLESS RISKS

FROM TIME TO TIME THE NEWSPAPER headlines of this country reveal that a rescue mission is under way to save the lives of persons lost in the Canadian hinterland. Heroic work is done by airmen, by ground services, by police and members of the armed forces, to rescue the stranded individuals. Lives are risked and great expense is undertaken to bring the search to a successful conclusion. And there is a widespread sigh of relief when news is flashed that the lost are found and the mission is accomplished.

In many cases these incidents arise as the result of legitimate business and duty in the northland. The accidents occur to persons who are engaged in necessary work or who have set out after proper preparation for sport or pleasure in the great wilderness areas of the Dominion. But there is another side to the situation. A spokesman for the Department of Natural Resources has voiced a complaint against those tourists, sportsmen and sightseers who go into the woods without adequate equipment or knowledge, and without the services of competent guides. Such persons, when they get into difficulties, create serious trouble and expense for those who must attempt their rescue, and may even cause the loss of searchers' lives before they are returned to civilization. It is against such adventurers that the criticism is directed. They should be made to realize that in needlessly risking their own lives they are also placing others in jeopardy.

ONCE BITTEN

IN HIS ATTACK ON THE "WARMONGERING" western democracies last week, Julius Katz-Suchy of Poland, asked fellow members of the disarmament sub-committee of the United Nations Assembly some fatuous questions. In his words:

"What are the peaceful purposes of the Operations Snowdrop and Yukon? Why train paratroops in the Arctic? Where would they be dropped in a defensive manner in the case of an invasion? What about the United States bases in Greenland? What of the hundreds of Pacific islands, the bases in North Africa, the economic penetration in Europe?"

We wonder exactly how short this Pole's memory can be. On Sept. 1, 1939, a man called Adolf Hitler sent his mechanized might rolling on Poland and blasted its cities from the air. Immediate reprisal from allies pledged to aid the Poles was minimized because of the lack of preparation. Poland itself was ill-equipped to meet the onslaught. The rest is history. What does Mr. Katz-Suchy want—peace-makers of the Chamberlain-Daladier type? Certainly they were not warmongers. But did the pleas for peace in our time halt the Nazis?

The Polish spokesman is not ingenious enough to believe that existing world tensions do not call for defensive preparations. In the light of such recent history, the intent of his questions could only backfire.

THAT WAS FOR MOTHER

ON THE NIGHT OF JUNE 25, JOE LOUIS, "winner and still champion," stood with his glove raised in the Yankee Stadium ring and announced to the listening world of radio that he had fought his last fight—"for my mother—this is for her." He had just knocked out the man who fought under the name of Jersey Joe Walcott. But the plans of Joseph Louis Barrow, heavyweight champion of the world, apparently did not take into consideration the plans of Mike Jacobs, president of the 20th Century Sporting Club. Hence Louis' announcement yesterday that he "definitely" will defend his title in an outdoor show next June.

It would be charitable to believe that it is the instinct of the fighter which has persuaded the man who gained world eminence as the "Brown Bomber" to make one more defence of his crown. But because the professional fight game is what it is, there is bound to be a conviction that commercialism has been the deciding factor.

We are led to wonder if next June's engagement is going to be the fistic equivalent of a Harry Lauder "farewell tour." If such is the case, will the cash returns be of more abiding value to the champion—admittedly past his prime in his last fight—than would be the grandeur of retirement in the ranks of the virtually unbeatable?

ON THAT WE AGREE

WITH MANY OF THE POLITICAL arguments advanced by Premier George Drew of Ontario we have disagreed. To many facets of the philosophy he will advance in future as national leader of the Progressive Conservative Party, we may take exception. On one point of his radio address last Thursday, however, we are completely in accord. Said Mr. Drew:

"As we see nation after nation losing its freedom under the dreadful power of one form of tyranny or another, every Canadian who values freedom, should take an increasing interest in political education and in those issues which will call for their decision in the not too distant future. In a healthy democracy there will always be more than one party. No concern, as I am sure it is yours, is that all who have the right to vote will vote, and that in the meantime they take an active interest in public affairs. . . . The important thing is, however, that all of us exercise our franchise and prepare ourselves to do it wisely."

That is an injunction which must be observed in any democratic society. If it is not observed, then the practice of democracy sickens and may die.

Dogs For Export

By H. MARKERT, from London

A REMARKABLE discovery was made recently during excavations in Wiltshire, in the west of England, when the remains of about half-a-dozen dogs were found in a cave beside the skeleton of a neolithic man. This discovery proves that Britain has been breeding dogs for about 10,000 years. What else could the cavemen have been if not a dog breeder? He could not have sold his products, but he may have exchanged them for more useful things, because ever since man succeeded in making use of dogs as domestic animals, he has regarded them as a possession which could be increased by breeding, and be used as a means of trading.

FOR CENTURIES past Britain has held pride of place among dog-loving countries. As an island she can more easily maintain her breeds relatively pure and healthy; that is why Britain has more native breeds of dogs to her credit than any other country. Besides she is a nation of seafarers and colonizers, and her sons returned home from overseas with specimens of the Afghan, Persian, Tibetan and Chinese dogs which have become increasingly popular in Britain since the 18th and 19th century; the Pekingese, for example, was much favored among old people in the 19th century, who regarded them in the winter months as "living hot water bottles".

BUT PERHAPS the most relevant fact is that the British are a nation of animal lovers. They not only have what is probably the largest cat population in the world, but possess an enormous number of dogs as well. No less than 2,500,000 dog licenses have been issued this year, and it is estimated that 50 per cent of these are for pedigree dogs.

This is, however, a postwar development; people are no longer satisfied with a mere mongrel; owners like to know the history, origin and characteristics of their pets and prefer to buy them from reputable breeders who can supply them with the dog's pedigree. During the last three years United Kingdom breeders have experienced a great boom in their trade not only at home but abroad. Supplies of fresh stud animals—interrupted by the war—are now being sought feverishly throughout the world and dogs from Britain are enjoying greater popularity than ever before. Today, Britain is exporting more pedigree dogs than any other country.

THE FIGURES SPEAK for themselves. In 1947, 1,000 to 1,100 United Kingdom dogs were sold to overseas buyers; this year, some 1,500 dogs have been sent by sea or air in search of new masters overseas. High prices are paid for these first-class animals, the average being about £100, but in 1947, £1,000 was paid for a Scotch terrier and £1,500 for a Pekingese, both of which were sold to the United States. Miniature poodles fetch about £750 and cocker spaniels £500; these are, of course, prize-winning specimens. The cost of an average pedigree puppy varies from three guineas for the variegated terrier types, to 15 guineas for poodles; in between these figures we have about 100 various "registered" breeds such as Alredales, Alsatians, Sealyhams, Welsh Corgis and Dachshunds. It would, however, be incorrect to assume that the "big" breeders carry off the big prizes; often a small, unknown breeder gets a good litter and wins first prize.

APART FROM the United States, the Union of South Africa, Australia, Scandinavia, Belgium, France and Holland also show great interest in United Kingdom dogs. The Kennel Club—Britain's dog-breeders' association—recently issued an export catalogue giving overseas buyers detailed information as to the dogs available for sale, together with prices. Ten thousand copies of this catalogue were sent out last spring, free of charge, and the new edition is now available to anyone interested. Buyers may be divided into three groups: the breeders who only want prize-winning, superlative dogs; dog lovers pure and simple, who are satisfied with a healthy, friendly animal, and the sportsman, who require intelligent, but not necessarily pure-bred gun dogs.

THE OBJECT OF the Kennel Club is to maintain certain standards of breeding. In 1859 the first dog show ever held in the world took place in Newcastle, affording Britain a leading place in this sphere. Soon, however, dog shows were being held anywhere and everywhere and were being organized by business racketeers. Then recognized breeders got together in 1873 and formed the Kennel Club, which has since undertaken the task of examining and improving the pedigree of the dogs put on show. Proof of the good reputation of these shows is the fact that since 1890 members of Britain's Royal Family have been regular exhibitors with their breeding dogs.

ANOTHER TYPICAL British institution is the sheep dog trials which have been taking place since 1873. Anyone who has attended one of these trials must have been amazed at the almost incredible degree of intelligence displayed by these animals in their work of guiding and herding the sheep.

AIRPARK CONTROVERSY

This relates to a letter from Brigadier (retired) G. A. McCarter, published in your paper, taking Mr. W. A. Scott to task for some remarks purported to have been made by him in support of the Gordon Head Airpark.

Mr. Scott is the president of the Memorial Airpark Association and is chosen by that organization the directors of which consist entirely of ex-service men, and I feel he is entitled to a great deal of credit for the energy and persistence he has given to bring the ideals and ambitions of his association to a conclusion.

It seems to me very regrettable that an "ordinary soldier," as Brigadier McCarter describes himself, should pick on technicalities of speech for his letter rather than show a broad-minded understanding of the whole subject.

Service men, due to their experiences, are usually inclined to be tolerant and co-operative with one another, so I would like to ask Brigadier McCarter to reconsider his opposition to these air-minded comrades and show them his friendship and provide them with the value of his help and advice instead.

To endeavor to reply to his letter in detail would be imposing on your valuable space, I feel, but I should like to add that the facts do not seem to have been fairly studied.

PROVINCE OF NEWFOUNDLAND

Time-honored Newfoundland's advent as the 10th province of the Dominion enables one to become acutely conscious of the phrase, "From sea unto sea," in the Canadian coat of arms.

"Vancouver Island to Newfoundland!" We are now anchored east and west and one is happy that it is so.

The final link in the Canadian chain is being forged on the anvil of a common heritage. The joining together of two peoples so richly endowed with the brotherhood of man. May each grow the greater in Confederation.

The Other Side Of The Street

By JAMES THRASHER from New York

IT MAY turn out that 1948 was, among other things, the year of the great Wall Street mystery. It's a mystery to us, at any rate. And the more we read the political speeches and the news from abroad, the more we keep asking ourselves: What is Wall Street?

TRULY AMAZING

We don't mean the caynon-like thoroughfare and its neighborhood, which the New York Stock Exchange and some of our biggest banking and brokerage houses call home. We mean the group of men who are allegedly running the country in a manner which, if you believe all you read, is truly amazing.

Let's take Russia's Wall Street first. Russia's Wall Street is spilling for a fight. It is the author of America's "imperialistic" plans to enslave all Europe, crush the Soviet Union, and make itself richer in the process.

Then there is Henry Wallace's Wall Street. Mr. Wallace is a capitalist and admits it. What's more, his left-wing admirers boast, he's the only one of the presidential candidates who ever met a payroll. But Mr. Wallace's Wall Street is not only pinning for war and plotting Russia's downfall. It is also running this government. It's the head coach of the "war mongers," a group that seems to include all Americans except those who will vote for Mr. Wallace next month.

Now we come to Mr. Truman's Wall Street. That Wall Street is not running the government now, but it will be if the voters should elect Mr. Dewey. It is not doing any war mongering, but it is intent upon a domestic program that would lead inevitably to depression.

ANOTHER VERSION

We also have President Peron's Wall Street. The Argentine dictator says that there was a plot to assassinate him and overthrow his government, hatched by a former American Embassy employee in Buenos Aires and "foreign capitalist interests." The boys enclosed in quotation marks surely couldn't be anybody else but Wall Street. President Peron's Wall Street, he says, "wanted another Bogota here."

This composite picture of Wall Street resembles the composite picture of the elephant given by the six blind Indians after each had examined a different portion of the beast with his hands. Judging from this picture, Wall Street is violently opposed to both the left and the right. It is planning a war of extermination against Communist Russia. But it also planned to exterminate a fascist dictator and create "another Bogota" in Buenos Aires.

The composite Wall Street is running our government and dictating its policy. Only it isn't, really. It's really working its head off to turn out the present government so it can run the next one.

We've noticed that the Wall Street stock market takes a dive any time that a war scare grows really severe. We've also noticed that the big bankers and brokers seem to prosper, along with almost everybody else, when there is no depression and industry and agriculture are busy and people have money to spend. But, from the evidence above, this probably doesn't explain anything.

IT'S A WONDER

All we can say is that if the composite picture of Wall Street is anywhere near true, it sure is a wonder that the big bankers and brokers could be so dumb and still have made all that money.

We Make It Ourselves

By JOSEPH LISTER RUTLEDGE

HOW often have we heard it said that every nation gets the sort of government it deserves? It's a smart phrase and like many smart phrases it is only partially true. There are people who have had better governments—and worse—than they have deserved.

SEED OF TRUTH

But the seed of truth is there. The measure of our interest in our own affairs is the measure of our achievements as a nation. Canada has rarely had the sort of bad government that challenges radical action. It has been easy for us to be complacent. At intervals we go importantly to the polls to register the results of our rather haphazard thinking and to take a stand on issues that, too often, we only dimly understand.

If this attitude is challenged we counter with the well-worn argument that there isn't much we could do about it anyway. There are things we can do about it. If that is not so then democracy is done. We can inform ourselves. We can get over accepting whatever views are placed before us, and begin to assess what they mean.

WISDOM SURVIVES

To leave our thinking to those with more political acumen is not democracy at all. We need not fear opinions no matter what they may be. The folly in them will die of its own poison and the wisdom survive. That is the glory of democracy.

We must have more than opinions. There is nothing honest in an opinion if its holder hasn't weighed all the evidence and thought it out to an informed conclusion. To believe that a planned economy is vital to us on someone's say so, or to accept free enterprise because it is a habit, is not good citizenship.

The soundness of any sound cause can be proved by anyone with an open mind. If he is to be a factor in his country's good, no citizen can offer less. The standards of intelligence and honesty and fairness that a man demands in his private life may not be qualified as he moves into groups.

THE ESSENCE

The essentials of good government then are as simple as a copybook maxim. Be informed. Be discriminating. Be active. Be honest. Nothing there beyond the reach of the humblest citizen. Yet there is the essence. No intelligent, thoughtful, politically active people ever get bad government.

IF YOU give up Berlin, you give up Europe, the German said. "It is as simple as that."

He is a Berliner, a member of that group of newspaper men who have been in the United States studying American newspapers and their methods.

His reasoning, I think, is worth reporting, as a counterpoise to the arguments of many Americans who believe the United States blunders terribly by clinging to her perilous toehold in Berlin.

They say the United States should have pulled out, because: 1. Berlin is untenable, strategically; the airlift can be stopped just as the trains were stopped.

2. By staying, the United States permitted the importance of the city to be ballooned to such proportions that they cannot afford to quit Berlin, and the Russians cannot afford to let us stay there.

3. Thus, the Americans in Berlin are, in fact, at the mercy of the Russian army, and the United States, as a whole, may be dragged into war by "the actions of any trigger-happy corporal," and over an issue that is intrinsically unimportant to America.

GERMAN ANSWER

Now comes the answer of the German editor:

"In the first place, if you get out of Berlin—suppose you withdraw to the Anglo-American zones of occupation in the west—then you merely transfer the point of friction.

"You would still have a common zonal border with the Russians. The incidents and the causes of tension would quickly begin to appear there."

But, he said, a result of vastly greater consequence would accrue if the Americans pulled back.

He estimated that less than 1 per cent of the German people, even those who live in the Russian zones, are Communists or even communically inclined, at this point.

"Statistics, of course, would show a much higher proportion. But you must remember that, for a German living in the Russian area, it is much wiser to pay lip service to the Russians and their ideas than it is to openly speak one's mind.

PIN THEIR HOPES

Throughout the rest of Germany, there are millions of other Germans who not only pin their hopes on the western democracies but have put their lives on the line by taking jobs—such as his—under the western military governments.

"It is not difficult to picture the fate of these people if all Germany comes under Russian control."

To a lesser degree, the same was true of all western Europe. Again, he argued, it includes those "satellite" nations that are now in Russian hands.

In short, to one Berliner, the battle for Berlin is the battle for Europe.

A TRIBUTE

The Times of London.

Unfortunately the warm welcome to Mr. Mackenzie King—who today far surpasses in length and distinction of service any Minister of the Crown holding office anywhere in the Empire—must now be accompanied by the sincerest regrets that he is not well enough to take part in the Commonwealth meetings. On the eve of retiring from public life he came to London for the last time as leader of his country; and British Ministers hope, through so old a friend, to renew the thanks that Britain owes for all that Canadians have done to support the recovery of their fellow subjects in the Old World.

FISH FINICKY

Calgary Herald
Canadians don't eat enough fish. So say our nutrition experts. Our commercial fishermen are inclined to agree. They have never found a market for fish in their own country that the size of the population would warrant. Consequently, they have had to depend on exporting much of their catch.

So Canadians have a means of reducing living costs, if they are willing to utilize it. The difficulty seems to be, as one fish merchant expressed it, "They'll eat fish if it doesn't taste like fish." Perhaps, with meat prices soaring into the stratosphere, they'll learn to eat fish, even if it continues to taste like fish.

Big Four In A Tale Of Three Cities

WASHINGTON

June 30—Sec. George Marshall announces a no surrender stand on Berlin, and U.S. air transport authorities say they are ready to move more food and supplies to the former German capital than formerly was thought possible.

July 6—United States, Britain and France demand that Russia lift the blockade.

July 23—General Clay, in Washington, expresses confidence that a vastly expanded airlift will sustain Berlin until negotiations break the deadlock between the United States and Soviet Union.

Sept. 22—Western powers deliver identical notes to Soviet Union designed to bring about a show-down on question of whether Stalin intends to recognize their rights in Berlin.

Sept. 26—Foreign ministers of U.S., Britain, France announce case will go to the Security Council.

Sept. 27—United States State Department issues a white paper detailing Big Four negotiations over the Berlin crisis.

BERLIN

MOSCOW

July 10—Soviet military administration protests U.S. and British "violations" of air safety rules while flying supplies into Berlin.

July 14—Russia rejects western powers' protest of blockade but hints it may be lifted if the western allies agree to reopen negotiations on German question.

July 31—Envoys of three western powers receive unexpected interviews with Molotov and give him their latest proposals for settling the east-west differences in Berlin.

Aug. 2—Western powers have two-hour meeting with Stalin.

Aug. 16—Three western envoys meet with Molotov.

Aug. 27—Molotov and his deputy, Andrei Y. Vishinsky meet with western envoys.

Sept. 25—in an authorized statement of Russia's position, Tass, official Soviet news agency, says it is up to western powers whether a four-power agreement on the Berlin blockade is obtained or whether the talks are broken off.

By GEORGE TUCKER. WASHINGTON D.C. Four years after Germany's surrender, her conquerors are locked in a test of strength that history may remember as the tale of three cities—Moscow, Berlin, and Washington.

Include Grape-Nuts in a Balanced Breakfast

Just 2 Tablespoons of Delicious Grape-Nuts

provides the cereal share of a good breakfast. You'll love those golden, crunchy kernels of whole wheat and malted barley. And they help give you the carbohydrates, proteins, minerals you need for a vigorous morning of work or play. Remember, Grape-Nuts is the most economical part of a good breakfast. Order Grape-Nuts from your grocer.

A GRAPE-NUTS ECONOMY RECIPE

1st Grape-Nuts Replace Expensive Nuts
GRAPE-NUTS ICE-BOX COOKIES

3 1/2 cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour
3/4 teaspoon Culmest Baking Powder
1/2 cup butter (or mixture of butter and shortening)
1 1/2 cups brown sugar, firmly packed
2 eggs
1 cup Grape-Nuts
1 1/4 teaspoons lemon juice
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla

1. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, sift again. Cream butter, add sugar gradually, creaming well. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Add Grape-Nuts and vanilla, then add flour. Mix in pressed small loaf pans, cover with waxed paper, and chill over night. Turn out on greased baking sheet in 1/4-inch slices. Bake on ungreased baking sheet in hot oven (425° F.) 7 minutes. Makes 8 dozen cookies.

TEETH OF ANIMALS DIFFER IN SIZE, SHAPE AND NUMBER

A man has four kinds of teeth, each with a special name. At the front of his mouth—in both the upper and lower jaws—are the "incisors." The incisors are the cutting teeth, and their chief purpose is to help us bite off something, as a piece of meat. In these days we have the help of knives and forks and use the incisors less often than in the past. Many persons use them,

The DOCTOR Says:

NEW DRUG PROVES VALUABLE IN TREATMENT OF TULAREMIA

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

Tularemia is often called rabbit fever because so many cases of the disease in human beings have been caught by eating or skinning cottontail rabbits. However, squirrels, woodchucks, cats, dogs, hogs, foxes, coyotes, muskrats, deer, mink, raccoon, snapping turtles, range sheep, meadow mice, rats, horned owls, chicken hawks, pheasants, and catfish have all been responsible for some cases.

Tularemia usually begins with the appearance of local lesion on or under the skin. This comes about one to four days after exposure to the infected material. The lesion is located most frequently on the hands or arms. This skin lesion begins as a sort of raised lump which tends to ulcerate after about a week. Enlarged lymph glands in the armpits follow the skin lesions after only a short time. These enlarged lymph glands are tender and painful and may become filled with pus.

CAUSES HIGH FEVER

Fever rises rapidly, usually reaching around 104°. The victims of this condition are often left with severe fatigue which may take months or years to get over if they have not been promptly and properly treated.

Tularemia is caused by a germ and the disease behaves like many other germ diseases. The best treatment is to avoid infection—this means that those who are engaged in skinning animals which are likely to be infected should wear gloves or protect themselves in some other way.

The best treatment for tularemia is the new drug, streptomycin. This drug is of real and definite value for tularemia and is now the preferred treatment for anyone who is unfortunate enough to acquire this disease. It seems to be highly effective in all forms of the disease, including that in which the lungs are involved.

Question: What causes ear-

however, in biting off bits of the leg, or "drumstick," of a chicken, an apple, a sandwich or whatnot.

A man also has "canine" teeth. There are two of these in the upper jaw, one at each side of the four incisor teeth in that jaw. The canines are pointed, and are a bit longer than the other teeth.

The lower jaw also has canines which touch those in the upper jaw. The upper canines have the special name of "eye-teeth."

Behind the canine teeth on each side of each jaw are five teeth which are known as "pre-molars" and molars. When a person is full-grown and has kept all his teeth, he has 20 molars and premolars. Four of these are far back in the mouth, and are called "wisdom teeth." The wisdom teeth grow out when a person is in his late teens or early twenties; it is supposed that he should have some wisdom by the time they appear.

The molars are the grinding teeth, and help us to make our food ready for swallowing. Eight of them—four in each jaw—are premolars, also known as "bicuspids." They are smaller than the so-called "true molars," but they help in grinding food.

Furry animals have the same kinds of teeth as men, but their teeth differ a great deal in shape, and sometimes in number. Monkeys of the Old World have exactly the same number of each kind of teeth as men, but New World monkeys have extra premolars.

Some animals have canine teeth which are much longer than the rest of their teeth. Note, for example, the canines of dogs and cats.

Other animals have incisor teeth which are well fitted for gnawing. These include beavers and squirrels.

Hoofed animals eat grass, hay, grain and twigs. They have each kind of teeth, but their molars are more important to them than the others. They use molars for grinding the plant food on which they live.

ache? In my case, it usually starts after a sore throat.

Answer: The second sentence answers the first. There is a passageway leading from the nose to the ear and infection can be carried along this passageway producing such a symptom as earache.

What kind of tomato soup have you been buying?

Make this TASTE TEST at home!... and your family will discover the wonderful difference!

If you have been relying on any other brand of soup for the utmost in flavor and nourishment you are likely to be surprised and delighted when you have made a comparison with Heinz.

Dietitians, who are supposed to know most about the good qualities of soup, lately registered a higher preference for Heinz than a group of housewives. A taste-test in your own home may result in the same verdict. Simply heat a tin of Heinz Cream of Tomato Soup and a tin of any other brand. Serve half-helpings of each. Then take a vote when your family has tasted the wonderful difference. It will be two to one for Heinz, probably.

65% of a group of housewives voted HEINZ their top favourite

Some women who much prefer certain Heinz varieties have not yet made a fair comparison of Heinz Condensed Soups with other leading brands. When a group of housewives lately sat down to a taste-test (without knowing what soups they were being served), more than 65% preferred Heinz, while a group of dietitians in a similar test gave Heinz first place by a margin of almost four out of five. If you have not yet tried all the delicious soups listed below, there is a treat in store for you.

LONG POWER LINE

What is believed to be the world's biggest electric overhead power line is now under construction in Sweden—connecting the north and the central part of the country. The total length of the line, expected to be finished by 1950, exceeds 600 miles.

STICKS OUT TONGUE AT LABOR PRESIDENT!—Pat Rooney of Hamilton, Ont., delegate to the Canadian Congress of Labor convention at Toronto, forgot she was a lady for a moment and stuck out her tongue at the president. Miss Rooney of the United Electrical Workers was criticizing the hard attitude of some of the anti-Communists and said some uncomplimentary things about certain union officials. She held the floor briefly, and hurled a "you too" at president A. R. Mosher and stuck out her tongue. Then she blushed. When the convention adjourned there were no hard feelings. Mosher shook Miss Rooney's hand and they walked together from the convention hall.—S.N.S. Photo.

Much Controversial Legislation For British Parliament Session

LONDON (CP) — Parliament will open Oct. 26 with a full-dress ceremonial, a warm prelude to the hard-fisted debate which is certain in the months ahead.

Instead of relaxation hard-driven members of Parliament hoped for in the later years of the present Parliament, they are faced with a new rush of controversial legislation. This means they will enhance their record as the hardest-worked Parliament in history, with frequent night sessions and numerous committee chores on the agenda.

Both Labor government and Conservative opposition enter the fray with new zest. The general election is two years away and battle lines now are being drawn for the contest. Few Britons now will dare guess who will be the victor in the election and parliamentary debate in the next two sessions will have considerable influence on the floating vote. This floating electorate, sometimes called the "middle-class vote," is being hotly sought after by Labor and Conservatives as well as the newly-revived Liberal Party.

To open the new session, the King will wear his crown for the first time in 10 years.

1. The government will introduce a controversial bill to nationalize the iron and steel industry. Conservatives will protest.

2. Both Houses of Parliament will be asked to agree to a judicial inquiry into alleged irregularities at the Board of Trade, following Scotland Yard investigations.

3. The Commons is again expected to pass—for the third time—the Parliament bill to reduce from two years to one the Lords' power to veto Commons legislation. The bill can become law in 1949 even if the Lords continue their opposition.

4. Extension of compulsory military service for men called up in 1940 and now liable for one year's duty is in prospect and may stir opposition.

5. There will be more harmony on a bill to reorganize civil defenses in the light of the uncertain world situation.

Long Fraud Trail Ends In Sentences

ST. HYACINTHE, Que. (CP) —Leo Lacroix, 45, pseudo nail salesman who gleaned $50,000 from his Vancouver-to-Halifax masquerade, was sentenced here Tuesday to a total of 360 years in the penitentiary to be served concurrently in seven years. He was arrested here last week while attempting to cash a false cheque.

When arraigned before Magistrate Victor Chabot he faced 99 charges, ranging from small thefts to false pretences and issuing false cheques.

He was wanted by police in Ottawa, Toronto, Fort William, Edmonton, Calgary and several British Columbia centres.

Police said he started in Vancouver, impersonating a nail salesman, and found buyers as far east as Gaspe, Que. In February, 1947, he is alleged to have netted more than $15,000 by selling nails to merchants in Abitibi, Que., and Toronto. The nails never were delivered.

As a false cheque specialist, he was reported to have stolen $6,400 from a bank in Gaspe while posing as a business man opening a branch firm in that area.

His arrest here culminated months of extensive investigation. A bank accountant became suspicious of Lacroix's meticulous methods.

Visitors From The West Indies

MR. AND MRS. NORMAN WILLIS

Aruba, in the Netherlands West Indies has for the past three years been the home of Norman Willis, an employee of the Standard Oil Company, who, with his wife, the former Louise Forbes, Vancouver, arrived in the city Thursday to spend several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Willis, 426 Michigan Street.

Mr. Willis is a graduate in mechanical engineering of University of British Columbia. Mrs. Willis, also a University of B.C. graduate, completed nurses' training in Vancouver General Hospital before her marriage to Mr. Willis, a year-and-a-half ago. Born in China, she was educated in the orient and came to Vancouver in 1940 with her family. Although she's glad to be back on the Pacific coast for a visit with friends and family, Mrs. Willis says she enjoys the different way of living in the West Indies.

"There is no change of temperature throughout the year, and we're in the tradewind belt, so we keep cool," she explained.

"There are other Canadians on Aruba, and we find plenty to keep us busy," she added.

The couple leave Sunday for the mainland, to visit Mrs. Willis' family and friends. Next Wednesday they go on by motor to Los Angeles, and will travel through the Southern States, back to the eastern coast.

Month-End Bride-Elect Much Feted By Friends

Miss Beverley Rae Moore, who on Oct. 30, will become Mrs. William L. Reynolds, was the honor guest when Mrs. A. Battle and Mrs. G. Butler entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the Butler home on Blackwood Street. Hallowe'en decorations were carried out throughout the rooms and gifts were contained in a wishing well. Corsage bouquets were presented to Miss Moore, her mother, Mrs. W. J. Moore, and her grandmother, Mrs. C. J. Moore. Refreshments were served from a table centred with a bride's cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Those invited were Mesdames B. Gillis, H. Moore, N. O'Brien, T. Moore, A. Clayton, G. Grimm, Misses Gloria Muston, Gerri Mark, Ann Gillis, Coralie Moore, Maureen Moore, and Mrs. A. A. Moore and Mrs.

B. Enright of Nanaimo; Mrs. W. Williamson of Duncan; and little Shaaron Enright of Nanaimo, who will attend Miss Moore as flower girl.

It was to honor the bride-elect that Mrs. F. Hobson and her daughters, Mrs. W. Bray and Mrs. J. Tippet entertained at the tea hour at Mrs. Hobson's Island Road home. Corsage bouquets were presented to the honor guest and her mother, Mrs. Griffiths presided at the tea urn. Two silver dishes were presented to Miss Moore from the guests, who included Mesdames C. A. Griffiths, W. E. Gardiner, J. H. Taylor, G. Slater, J. E. McRoberts, T. Shadbolt, Savage, E. Silburn, G. Silburn and Misses Gloria Muston and Gerri Mark, who will act as bridesmaids.

Alderman and Mrs. Ed. Williams who have spent the past five months in England, are returning to their Queen Anne Heights home in the city, on Friday afternoon. Miss Mildred Williams, who accompanied them to Great Britain, is taking a special course in nursing in Montreal, and will not return to the city until Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey, 2161 Fair Street, celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary quietly at their home on Sunday. Mrs. Harvey was born in Victoria Square, Ont., in 1863, and Mr. Harvey, who will celebrate his 92nd birthday Nov. 15, was born in Newmarket, Ont. The couple were married in Newmarket and made their home in Ontario, Saskatchewan and Manitoba before coming to this city in 1916.

Mrs. Cyril J. Williams and her daughter, Stephanie Sue, have returned from Vancouver where they have spent the past two months with Mrs. Williams' mother, Mrs. H. D. Drake, prior to her departure for Detroit to visit another daughter. Mr. Williams, who joined his wife and daughter in the mainland city, two weeks ago, returned to Victoria with them.

A surprise party was held at the home of Miss Irene Wilson, Foul Bay Road, by members of the Omicron Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, to honor their president, Miss Louise Walton, who leaves shortly for Winnipeg. Tables of bridge were formed and refreshments served later in the evening. Miss Margaret Walker, acting president, presented Miss Walton with a 5 o'clock spoon, appropriately engraved, and expressed best wishes of the chapter.

Miss May Harris and Miss Bernice Mullen were co-hostesses at a surprise miscellaneous shower, at the home of Mrs. W. G. Frampton, 2572 Belmont Avenue, in honor of Mrs. John Mundy, the former Miss Phyllis Frampton. Corsage bouquets were presented to the guest of honor and to her mother. Games were enjoyed and refreshments served, with Mrs. Doris Waters and Miss Tommy Tomalin assisting the hostesses. Others present were Mesdames S. Stafford, M. McFarlane, E. J. Harris, Harris Sr., J. Mullen, G. Prior, Misses Audrey Crossman, Jean Foxall, Clair Boutillier and Colleen Norris.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Goldring, Beresford Place, Bessborough Road, have left Victoria to spend the winter in southern California. During their absence from the city, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cooke will occupy their home.

Mrs. P. C. Black and Mrs. J. B. Munro were tea hour hostesses this afternoon at the Empress Hotel, to honor Mrs. Mary Phillips, who is leaving Victoria shortly. The honor guest was presented with a corsage bouquet. Mrs. C. Tice presided at the tea table and others present were Mrs. Martin, Mrs. C. Bosdet, Mrs. A. J. Hurston, Mrs. C. Mudge, Mrs. F. A. Jackman and Miss Alma Hill.

Mr. Gordon A. Cameron returned from eastern Canada and the United States, last week-end. He traveled east by plane to join Mrs. Cameron and Miss Shirley Cameron, who had preceded him, by train. Together, they visited New York, Montreal and Toronto. Mrs. Cameron and Miss Cameron, who are still in Toronto, will spend some time in Winnipeg before returning to Victoria, about the end of the month.

Friends and relatives gathered in the Seaman's Institute Saturday evening at a surprise party for Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ward on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. Many lovely gifts and flowers were presented to the couple. T. Ralph proposed the toast and a decorated wedding cake centred the refreshment table, which was covered with a lace cloth and set with bright flowers. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. Corry, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wrighton, Mr. and Mrs. B. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. William Haddow, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. T. Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. William Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. L. Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Horn, Mr. and Mrs. George Wolff, Mr. and Mrs. T. Cartwright, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Allison, Mrs. J. A. Ralph, Mrs. P. Dawes, Miss Joyce Allison, Mr. T. A. Brown, Mr. J. Leslie, Mr. J. L. Ward Jr., Mr. R. Renschler, Mr. R. Ralph and Mr. Glenn Smith.

Returns To Shanghai Home This Week

Mrs. E. O. J. Woodward, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Biggin, 1045 Linden Avenue, for the past month, is leaving the city on Thursday for Vancouver, from where she will sail on the week-end for her home in Shanghai. Mrs. Woodward, the former Miss Frances Biggin, is well known in Victoria, and has been much feted during her visit.

Mrs. G. F. Palmer Married Quietly

A quiet marriage was performed Oct. 16 at Gorge Presbyterian Church by Rev. T. H. McAllister when principals were Mrs. Gertrude Fairchild Palmer, Victoria, and John Garfield Newman, Picton, Ont. The bride is the widow of the late John F. Palmer, a popular member of the Natural History Society and also chairman of the Botany Group.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Heatley.

For the occasion the bride was attired in a navy blue suit with hat to match. Mrs. Heatley chose a pale blue afternoon dress and grey accessories.

A small reception was held following the ceremony, at Melody Lane.

For the wedding trip to the mainland the bride chose a squirrel fur coat with her dark brown traveling ensemble.

The couple will make their home in Victoria.

Annual Meeting—Treasurer's report given at the annual meeting of South Salt Spring Island Women's Institute showed a sum of $302.40 raised during the year and a balance of $221.31. Donations had been made to the local hospital, flood relief, community hall, parcels for Britain, and Queen Alexandra Solarium. It was decided, following an address by Messrs. A. Davis, C. Bilton and J. Grosart, to undertake the supper for the Canadian Legion on Armistice night. Officers elected were Mrs. A. Davis, president; Mrs. K. Kinder, first vice-president; Mrs. J. Forsum, second vice-president; Mrs. J. White, secretary-treasurer, assisted by Mrs. R. Lee, Mrs. A. Heberton, director.

Harvest Supper—Over $150 was cleared by the Women's Auxiliary to St. George's Church, Salt Spring Island, at the annual harvest supper. Mrs. F. Sharpe was general convener. Tables were decorated with vases of daisies, dahlias and grapes by Mrs. A. B. Elliot, assisted by Mrs. D. Fanning. Kitchen committee was Mesdames W. Hele, W. M. Palmer, W. Norton, G. H. Holmes, E. Adams, H. Price, F. C. Carter, J. Byron and other members of Vesuvius Bay Circle and the Evening Branch of the auxiliary. Mesdames M. Gardiner, G. Parsons and L. Mout were in charge of servitors; C. Zenki auctioned left-over pies and buns. Following supper, a concert, arranged by Archdeacon Holmes, included piano solos by Mrs. Warren Hastings, Miss Clare Devine, Myra Bond, Pat Crofton and Bruce Gardiner; songs, Mesdames J. Beresford, F. Baker and Archdeacon Holmes; recitations, Mrs. C. Zenki, Messrs. J. Bates and C. Zenki, and a barber shop quartette, Archdeacon Holmes, Maj. S. Saunders, Stephen King and F. Baker. A duet was given by Mrs. W. Norton and F. Baker.

League Pledge—Miss Peggy Lou Parker and Mrs. Evelyn Forrest, took the Junior League pledge and were presented with club pins at the regular meeting of Queen Alexandra Solarium Junior League, held Monday evening. Final plans for the Farmerette box social and dance next Saturday at K. of P. Hall, were made and it was announced by Mrs. Audrey Monk that Hal-lowe'en candy had been purchased and will be sent to the children at the Solarium. Mrs. Effie Tomlinson was named convener of the Shower of Dimes campaign and Mrs. Mary Genest,

P.T.A. News

Monterey—The equipment of the school stage with backdrop curtains and tentative plans to supply science books for the library and sweaters for the boys' team, were adopted as the year's projects at a meeting of Monterey P.T.A. Mrs. K. Clark was in the chair. Mrs. H. E. Bull announced enrollment of 217 members. Mrs. W. Bailey reported the chest clinic survey will be held at the Oak Bay Health Clinic, No. 24, 25, and 26; W. Brynjolfson, principal, spoke of the school drama club. Date of the fall bazaar was announced as Nov. 3 with donations for the miscellaneous booth to be sent to Mrs. E. H. Pope. It was decided to dispense with the Hal-lowe'en party in favor of a Christmas party. Mrs. K. Clarke outlined the aims of Better Parenthood Week, and a film "Frozen Foods" was shown by Earl Eby. Refreshments were served.

Salt Spring—A sum of $20 was cleared for funds of Salt Spring P.T.A. at a whist and bridge drive, held in Mahon Hall, Ganges Harbor. Mrs. J. White was general convener and Donald Goodman acted as master of ceremonies.

Pocket Money
Spent On Movies

NOTTINGHAM, Eng. (CP)—Average pocket money of Nottingham children, according to a survey by the local teacher's association, is four shillings (80 cents) weekly—most of it spent on movies.

Some children receive about 10 shillings a week and go to the movies six times a week. About 20 per cent go once a week, 40 per cent twice or more, and 30 per cent go regularly on Sundays.

Movies, the report said, have become "a major influence on the formative years of life, outweighing in potency the steady influence of schools."

Just in case you've forgotten, one cup of dry spaghetti expands to about two cups when cooked. For a really super-duper tasting sauce for the spaghetti, combine sauteed minced garlic and onion with celery, canned tomatoes, ground beef, chopped ripe olives and some red table wine with seasonings to taste and simmer slowly for a couple of hours.

Ottawa Hates The Thought Of Provincial Lotteries

OTTAWA (CP) — Federal authorities today shied fearfully away from the question of just what would happen to a province if it should decide to hold a lottery.

The answer seems to be that, under the law, the province would be obliged to arrest itself and throw itself into the clink.

And what would happen if the province refused to give itself the business?

That's a nightmare thought that no one in this capital, where the mere mention of Dominion-provincial conflict can give a civil servant the shudders, would even entertain—let alone answer.

Premier Duplessis of Quebec, who likes to needle the Dominion on constitutional matters, brought the question up Tuesday when he told a meeting of Quebec county councils the provinces should be allowed to hold lotteries. They could use the money for public health and educational services.

The Justice Department, asked for comment, fled collectively from the question.

"Please," pleaded a departmental spokesman. "I've already had a couple of run-ins with Mr. Duplessis. Don't ask me that one, please."

Another government source, speaking "absolutely—and I do mean absolutely—not for quotation," ventured the opinion that if Mr. Duplessis threw a lottery his attorney-general would have to arrest him and his entire cabinet and jail them.

"You see," said this source, "the provinces administer the Criminal Code, which prohibits lotteries, and they are obliged to prosecute anyone who operates a lottery. So, if a province operates a lottery, it breaks the law itself."

That was as far as this source, or anyone else, would go.

Courteous Driver Wins Commendation

JAMES McLELLAN

There would be a lot more mothers in Greater Victoria breathing easier if delivery van drivers, when making deliveries on side streets where children play in the path of traffic, sometimes would follow the example of one of their number, James McLellan, 1025 Queens Avenue, well-known sports figure.

D. E. Meredith, 804 Reed Street, Topaz Heights, was so moved by the gesture of the driver on this occasion last week he wrote a letter to the Hudson's Bay Co. expressing thanks.

"My youngest daughter, not yet two years old, was crossing the road when one of her shoes came off and she sat down in the middle of the road to fix it," wrote Mr. Meredith to C. N. Chubb, manager of the store.

"Your driver rounded the corner at such a careful rate he was able to stop in plenty of time. He did not sound his horn and alarm the child as many would have done, but got out of the truck, carried Sue to the safety of the sidewalk and assisted her in getting her shoe on again," he said.

"My deepest appreciation both to you—whom I assume to be responsible for such a policy—and the driver involved," concluded Mr. Meredith, who noted that while most van drivers are careful, there are exceptions.

Mr. Chubb reported the driver had been given a cash award by the company for his courtesy.

"His action certainly deserves high commendation," commented Mr. Chubb.

Last Rites Today

PORT ALBERNI—A jury delivered a verdict of accidental death in the case of Patrick O'Hagen, 69, who was injured in an automobile accident on Oct. 8 and died several days later in hospital. Funeral services were held today from the Catholic church, with interment in the Catholic cemetery.

London Evidence On Yugoslav War Heard At Nanaimo

NANAIMO (CP) — Yugoslavia's dark days of German and Italian invasion are being fought over again today before a jury and a justice of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

From the prisoners' box and through evidence taken before a special commission in London, Mirko Vitkovitch, Nanaimo coal miner, is attempting to justify circulation of letters allegedly vilifying the character of Dr. Maden Guinlo Zorkin.

Dr. Zorkin, now living here, is an anti-Communist lecturer, author and former War Crimes Commission member in London.

The Crown charge Vitkovitch with criminal libel, while the coal miner is attempting to substantiate his charges that Zorkin is a traitor to Yugoslavia.

Vitkovitch charges that Zorkin was an army deserter, a Nazi collaborator and a member of the "Eustache" terrorist group, accused of committing horrendous war crimes.

TESTIMONY FROM LONDON

Reams of closely-typed testimony taken in London are being read before the jury.

Dr. Radich Villisich, a boyhood "friend" of Zorkin's who testified while he was in London as physician with the Yugoslav Olympic team, said in testimony read here Tuesday that he was "shocked by the lies Zorkin is saying in America."

Villisich, who belonged to one wing of the Croatian Peasant Party and Zorkin to another, said Zorkin threw down his arms when the Germans struck and fled back to his home in Split, Yugoslavia.

At his home, said the testimony, Zorkin consorted with enemy soldiers, drank and played cards with them.

Vitkovitch, the accused, is pleading "justification" for leveling public charges against Zorkin. In his defence he claimed the anti-Communist lecturer has "built himself up" in Canada as an important personage whereas, claimed Vitkovitch, Zorkin played "a very poor part in the struggles of his native land."

Teacher Arrives Two Days Early; School On Scow

PORT ALBERNI — Teacher was two days early.

Miss Irene Cummings, teacher for the Sarita River camp of Bloedel, Stewart & Welch Ltd., near Bamfield, arrived two days before her school did, according to reports reaching trustees of Alberni School District, No. 70.

The school arrived on a scow and is now in operation with 10 pupils. It is the old Franklin River School. Claude Campbell, inspector, recommended that the teacher be paid a cost-of-living bonus by the company, following reports from trustees that they understood the teacher was required to pay the same increased board as the loggers, $75 a month.

Campbell Lake Issue Before Cabinet Again

CAMPBELL RIVER—Determination to keep alive the issue of having Lower Campbell Lake edges cleared before flooding was expressed by members of the Campbell River and District Board of Trade, who voted unanimously at a meeting here to send to Victoria the same delegation which visited the cabinet last spring on the matter.

Members have protested the method proposed by the B.C. Power Commission in letting nature clear the lake edges of debris by rising and falling of the water level.

Delegates who will be asked to take the matter before the cabinet again in an effort to reach some definite decision are: P. D. P. Holmes, vice-president of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Vancouver Island; John W. Baile, John Lambie, Duncan Marshall and Roderick L. Haig-Brown. Members agreed also to request co-operation of the Comox-Alberni Federal Liberal Association.

Postal authorities will be asked to provide direct air mail service for Campbell River.

Accidental Death Youbou Jury Verdict

YUBOU—A verdict of accidental death which resulted when a log crushed his chest, was given by a coroner's jury, investigating the death of Petro Bejla, 80, of Arbutus Road, Youbou.

Mr. Bejla, had gone up the side of the mountain, behind his home to cut some wood. His daughter, on returning home from shopping, saw no sign of him and on going to investigate, found him lying dead with a log across the side of his chest. Col. J. H. Boyd of Lake Cowichan was coroner.

New Safety Record At Plywood Plant

PORT ALBERNI — A new record in safety operations has been achieved at the Alberni plywood plant in Port Alberni.

The plant has worked 140 days without an accident. The accident frequency rate is at an all-time low at 8.75 per 1,000,000 man hours worked. The severity rate is .16 per 1,000 man hours worked.

This plant distributed $300 in awards to lucky employees this month in appreciation of the fine record. The same plant won the National Safety Council award in 1946 for outstanding record in safety that year. The plant was the safest plant of its kind on the pacific coast that year.

Effective Nov. 1 Haircuts To Cost 75c, Shaves 50c

Male residents of Greater Victoria will have to pay 75 cents for a haircut and 50 cents for a shave starting Nov. 1. Effective on the same date is the price of 50 cents for children's haircuts.

Decision to boost the shave and haircut prices was made at a meeting Thursday night of the Greater Victoria Barber Shop Owners' Association.

The owners said the new scale was set to meet the demand for more wages by the journeyman barber.

At the present time haircuts for men are 65 cents. A shave costs 35 cents and children's haircuts are 40 cents.

The new scale set has been in effect in Vancouver for several months.

At the present time employees are guaranteed $26 a week and get a percentage on anything earned over $36.

New guaranteed wage is expected to be around $30 a week, one official said, but no figure has been decided as to where the commissions will start.

Brazil is larger than continental United States.

Meyers Indicted On New Tax Charge

BALTIMORE (AP) — Bennett E. Meyers, former major general, was indicted Tuesday for a second time by a Baltimore federal grand jury on charges of income tax evasion.

The wartime second ranking procurement officer of the air forces, is accused in the new bill of evading $45,731 in taxes between 1942 and 1946.

He was indicted here last March on a charge of evading $15,658 in 1941.

Meyers, stripped of his army rank, now is serving a federal prison term for inducing a former business associate to lie under oath to a Senate committee. He was convicted in Washington last March.

They'll Do It Every Time

Employers Distrust Bridges' Contract

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — West coast waterfront employers told C.I.O. longshore chief Harry Bridges Tuesday that it considered "any contract which you and your leadership are ultimately to administer is worthless."

The statement was made in a letter written by Frank P. Foise, president of the Waterfront Employers' Association, to Bridges. Foise rejected the latter's latest proposal for reopening negotiations in the 48-day-old west coast maritime strike.

Bridges had offered to allow the strikers to select a rank and file negotiating committee by secret ballot.

The longshoremen demand a 15-cent raise from a base pay of $1.67 cents an hour. The employers offered 10 cents.

Basketball Playoff Dates Set In April

VANCOUVER (CP) — Play-downs in the western zone of the Canadian Amateur Basketball Association will open April 8 and 9 in the Manitoba-Saskatchewan tilt, officials announced today.

Provincial competition will get under way in a week or so. The winner of the first play-down will meet Alberta's champions April 11 and 12 in a two-game, total-point series. This winner will clash with British Columbia for the western Canada title April 14, 15 and 16 (best two-of-three).

Championship play-offs are tentatively scheduled for April 23, a best-of-five series between east and west for the Canadian title and the Montreal Sportsmen's Trophy.

Alberta Farmhand Sentenced To Death

EDMONTON (CP) — Poked-faced Mike Zachariuk, who told police he shot his employer because "I thought this fellow is trying to poison me" has been sentenced to the gallows for the slaying.

Convicted by a six-man Alberta Supreme Court Tuesday, the 20-year-old Hairy Hill, Alta., farm employee was sentenced by Mr. Justice C. J. Ford to be hanged Jan. 12 for the murder of William Pacholek last May on Pacholek's Spedden, Alta., farm.

Actual date of the slaying has not been established. Zachariuk sat stolidly through the week-long trial. He did not testify and had nothing to say before sentence was pronounced.

A statement telling of the shooting of Pacholek, given by the accused to an R.C.M.P. officer June 3, was the turning point of the trial. The statement was admitted as evidence by Mr. Justice Ford after hours of argument by counsel.

British tourists will spend $120,000,000 outside their country this year, but the budget is more than balanced. Tourists to Britain will spend $160,000,000.

No Wedding Bells For Oakalla Jail

VANCOUVER (CP) — Wedding bells did not ring in Oakalla prison Tuesday for a man accused of murder and a woman the Crown intends to have testify at his trial.

Attorney-General Gordon Wismer halted the nuptial plans of Frank Saunders, accused in the alleged abortion death of an 18-year-old Vancouver girl. Saunders wanted to marry Beatrice Lisney, who said she was his common-law wife.

"This woman will be one of the main witnesses when Saunders comes to trial," said the Attorney-General. "If she were to marry him, she would not be a compellable witness."

Indians' Series Share Sets Mark

CINCINNATI (AP) — A record-breaking $6,772.07 for each member of the world baseball champion Cleveland Indians receiving a full share of the recent world series money was announced today by baseball commissioner A. B. Chandler. The former all-time high was $6,544.76, and went to Detroit Tigers in 1935.

Each full-share member of Boston Braves, who lost to the Indians in the big play-off, four games to two, will receive $4,570.73.

Cleveland voted full shares to 30 players and Boston gave the full amount to 31 club members.

Alberta Legion Protests Admittance Of 4 To Canada

EDMONTON (CP)—The Red Deer, Alta., branch of the Canadian Legion and the Alberta Labor-Progressive Party have protested admittance to Canada of four alleged French collaborators, it was learned today.

The Legion branch forwarded a resolution of protest to Ottawa and Ben Swankey, Alberta L.P.P. leader, today released a statement charging "that the policy of the government is one of admitting the worst Fascist elements to our country."

Trade Minister Howe as Acting Prime Minister confirmed Monday night that the case was closed as far as the cabinet was concerned. The External Affairs department declined to say whether or not France has requested extradition of the four Frenchmen who were granted special cabinet permission, by order-in-council, to live in Canada.

The Legion resolution reads: "That the Red Deer branch of the Canadian Legion No. 35 goes on record as being strongly opposed to the action of the federal government in admitting to Canada four foreign collaborators of the Vichy government, and furthermore the Red Deer branch condemns the undemocratic manner in which our government acted in this matter."

Mr. Swankey's statement said the cabinet's decision "is a crime against justice and democracy... It is possible that these same collaborators may have been responsible for the death of Canadian soldiers in France."

The press statement also attacked the "policy of admitting D.P.'s," many of whom "worked with the German Gestapo, who committed brutal crimes against their own people."

Mr. Swankey charged that many displaced persons "openly boast of the day when they will put on a Canadian uniform to fight the Reds, labor unions, and the Soviet Union."

STATEMENT BY C.C.F.

The C.C.F. released an official statement in Ottawa Monday morning terming the charges and counter-charges in the case "disturbing." It urged the government to give the Canadian people a "full explanation."

Immigration authorities said they had no intention of making public the records of the four Frenchmen now in possession of the immigration division of the Resources Department.

Involved are four French citizens—Dr. Georges Benoit Montel, 49, a surgeon now lecturing at Quebec's Laval University; Julien Gaudens Labedan, 35, interior decorator and cabinet maker working in Montreal; Andrew Charles Emmanuel Boussat, 45, surgeon working for a drug firm, and Jean Luis Hue.

LaFace Brothers Star In Spokane Victory

NANAIMO—Spokane Dynamos are senior B box lacrosse champions of British Columbia for the 1948-49 season. In the third and deciding clash of the provincial playoff here last night the United States squad turned back Nanaimo Palaces, coast champions, 15 to 9 before a crowd of 2,000.

Dynamos won the title the hard way. After dropping the first game 18 to 15 the Spokane boys roared back to tie the series with a 10 to 9 triumph Monday evening.

Dynamos were full value for their clinching win, and had the Nanaimo team behind all the way. Only in the final stanza did the Nanaimo squad show any of the fight that had taken them into the provincial series for the first time in 10 years.

As in the earlier contests it was slippery Jack LaFace who led the Spokane club. He blinked the red lamp for eight of his team's goals on a dozen shots. Elusive and packing a deadly shot, he seemed to have the Indian sign on Nanaimo goalie Fred Fulla.

Spokane took a 2 to 1 first period lead and stretched their margin to 8 to 2 at the half. In the third quarter they added four more while holding Nanaimo to but two goals, to lead 12 to 4 going into the last canto.

CLOSING RALLY

Nanaimo made a desperate last quarter bid and were successful in notching five goals but were still six short at the final bell.

Bill Andrews and Ed Popham of Victoria handled the crucial tilt after both clubs had registered strong protests following the second game which was refereed by Ab Delmonico, vice-president of the B.C.L.A. and Popham. Andrews and Popham meted out a total of 20 minutes to Spokane, all minors. Nanaimo was assessed 12 minutes.

Sterling going by Al LaFace in the Spokane net was mainly the reason for Spokane's win. Called upon to look at 43 shots, the Dynamo net-minder blocked all but nine. At the other end of the rink, Fulla had 28 shots sent his way, 15 of them good for the red light.

SUMMARY
First quarter: 1. Spokane, Griffin Mayall, 4:30; 2. Nanaimo, Good (Gold), 12:30; 3. Spokane, Jack LaFace (Smith), 14:45. Penalties: Jack LaFace, P. LaFace, J. Rice.
Second quarter: 4. Nanaimo, Don White, 35; 5. Spokane, Smith (Joe LaFace), 2:40; 6. Spokane, Babe LaFace (Smith), 3:10; 7. Spokane, Jack LaFace, 3:35; 8. Spokane, Jack LaFace, 7:10; 9. Spokane, Mayo (Joe LaFace), 11:40; 10. Spokane, Jack LaFace, 14:35. Penalties: Kuhn, Hanson, Ted Graver.

INTERHIGH SOCCER

In interhigh junior soccer games yesterday, Vic High Golds captured a 5 to 0 decision from Oak Bay Whites; Vic High Blacks edged Oak Bay Greens 2 to 1; and Mount View and Central Junior High played to a scoreless draw.

Patterson Grid Hero Of Regina Followers

REGINA (CP)—This Gabriel isn't one for blowing his own horn. And Saskatchewan Roughriders' Gabe Patterson doesn't have to—Rider football fans will do it for him.

Here in Regina, galloping Gabe has endeared himself to the hearts of the Rider followers and readily deserves the bouquets tossed in his direction. For the speedy negro backfielder last year captured the western conference scoring championship and currently holds the lead this season.

Born in the deep south, Patterson played high school football around Pittsburgh. He spent one year with Kentucky State College and later with the University of Pittsburgh. His wife and three daughters live in Pittsburgh.

Lured to Canadian football ranks by Montreal Alouettes in 1947, Patterson moved to Saskatchewan Roughriders because Alouettes were overloaded with imports.

Despite his club having only won two games so far this season, Patterson is enjoying another terrific year, with his educated toe accounting for numerous converts and singles, and his brilliant running gaining considerable yardage.

ACCOMPLISHED ATHLETE

"Don't count us out yet," says Patterson. "We've given Calgary many a scare so far this season. If Stampede take Winnipeg, I'm sure we can take Bombers in the final league game."

Patterson, who stands several inches short of six feet and weighs around 190 pounds, is quite an all-round athlete, playing basketball during the winter months, and baseball for Farnham, Que., in the summer.

He remembers well when he battled against Satchel Paige, now with the world champion Cleveland Indians.

"I can remember getting one hit off Paige, but he struck me out more often than not. Man... that guy has wonderful control."

While he plays football here, he also coaches a local high school team and predicts that in a year or so Riders can count on some good talent.

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

NOTICE THERE IS some talk of attempting to place a professional basketball team in Victoria. Latest move would be an attempt to keep the Coast League in operation, following the collapse of the Portland entry. Such an idea would be alright if somebody could inform me just where a pro club would play its games. The high school gym is definitely out as that floor cannot provide sufficient accommodation for the city league teams. The only other possible location is the Armories and the cost of building a board floor to accommodate the cagers is beyond reason.

THOSE BEHIND THE plan feel that a pro circuit made up of teams from Victoria, Vancouver, Bellingham and Seattle would make a compact loop. They feel that with transportation costs cut and salaries within reason the pro game might pay its way. That may be so but the first problem to be met is to locate a suitable playing area and that would appear to kill the proposition right off.

VANCOUVER'S COLEY HALL apparently has lost none of his belligerency. The owner of the Vancouver Canucks Canadian League hockey club had a $50 fine plastered on him for an altercation with Davie Downie of the Seattle club during the league opener at Vancouver last week. Hall was the scourge of baseball umpires during his career as a player and several years ago it will be remembered he faced a court action for an attack on a newspaper scribe. However, the case was settled out of court. Coley doesn't seem to mellow with age.

THERE WAS QUITE A bit of nail chewing on the part of the province's bookmakers Saturday over the running of the $15,000 handicap at the Golden Gate track in California. It seems the boys were loaded on Vancouver-owned Mafosta and Ronald Graham's speedster would have paid around $13 to Win. Mafosta was right up close all the way but just couldn't catch Shannon II otherwise there would have been a lot of sorry looking bookies come Saturday night. Every time a British Columbia-owned thoroughbred cracks down in California the boys in the back room experience a jolt where it hurts the most.

Cleveland Indians Reduce Farm Teams

CLEVELAND (AP)—The world champion Cleveland Indians of the American Baseball League announced Tuesday they have terminated their working agreement with Baltimore Orioles of the International League.

Cleveland said it is reducing its farm system from 18 teams to 15. In announcing the cut, scout Laddie Placock said, "We're simply making the system more efficient. We definitely are not retrenching."

FRED DALY TOPS

LONDON (AP)—Irishman Fred Daly led the money winners through Britain's 1948 golf season with £2,500 ($10,000), the Professional Golfers' Association announced today.

Daly was followed by Australian Norman von Nida, Charlie Ward and Dai Rees, whose winnings were not announced.

Stengel Specialized In Laughing Off Bad Ball Clubs

John McGraw of the Giants thought enough of the Casey Stengel on the left to carry him on three pennant winners, and now the inimitable old outfielder is manager of the Yankees.

Adanacs-Tigers Play Sudden-Death Final

TORONTO (CP)—With the Mann Cup riding on every goal, New Westminster Adanacs and Hamilton Tigers clash tonight for the Canadian senior lacrosse championship.

It's the final game of the best-of-five series now squared at two games each. On the basis of play in their four previous games there seems little to choose between the two clubs—each has scored 38 goals.

Both teams will be nursing injuries when they face off in Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens.

Adanacs, defending champions, probably will be without first-string centre Jack Douglas. It's a toss-up whether high-scoring Tommy Love will be able to dress with Tigers.

Douglas aggravated an ankle injury in Monday night's game and made a brief jaunt to hospital yesterday for treatment.

Hamilton manager Alex McPherson said he wasn't sure if Love could make the grade, but Al Doyle's foot injury had improved enough to let him play. Doyle missed Monday's game.

New Westminster won the first two games of the series, 11 to 6 and 13 to 11. Hamilton roared back to take the next two, 12 to 7 and 9 to 7.

"We need some shooting practice judging by Monday night's performance," coach Ken MacDonald of New Westminster, said. "Our passing was off in the last game, too, but we hope to get it in shape for an all-out try in the final."

McPherson said a couple more Tigers were "on the limp."

"We won't know until they're all together in the dressing-room who will and who won't be available."

Misfortunes Hit Bearden Family

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Gene Bearden, Cleveland Indians' pitcher, left by plane last night for Popular Bluff, Mo., where a series of misfortunes befell his family.

He said he will return to pitch against Satchel Paige, also of Cleveland, in an exhibition game here Sunday.

His father, Henry Bearden, contracted pneumonia while attending the recent world series which Gene helped the Indians to win; his 20-month-old son became ill yesterday, and last night the elder Bearden's apartment was damaged by fire and Gene's mother was in hospital with shock.

Toronto Argos Lose Two More Players

TORONTO (CP)—Two more backfield injuries last night sent the stock of Toronto Argonauts, Big Four football team, still further into the doldrums.

Sonny Colvin received what was believed to be a chipped hip bone in last night's practice session and rookie Dave West went into hospital for observation. Coach Ted Morris said West had apparently hurt his head last Saturday and had been "walking around in a daze."

Gordon Richards Rides 200th Winner

WOLVERHAMPTON, Eng. (AP)—Gordon Richards, Britain's champion jockey, booted home his 200th winner of the season Tuesday when he scored on the favored Trysall in the Bilton Handicap.

It was the eighth time Richards has ridden 200 or more winners in a single season. Last year he set a British record with 269 winning rides.

Ol' Case May Have To Do Same Thing For Yankees

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEW YORK (NEA)—A lot of people have been walking on air since Charles Dillon Stengel dropped out of the clouds and into the big chair at Yankee Stadium. Among them is Casey Stengel.

If during the long reign of Ed Barrow someone had predicted that Stengel, the comedian, would wind up as manager of the proud Yankees, he would have been rushed to the nearest psychiatrist.

When at the close of the 1943 season Ol' Case, as he refers to himself, checked out in Boston, where he was saddled with the stinging Bees, he hadn't the slightest hope of ever returning to the majors.

It was his work in the Triple A's that brought him back—hard work. His flag-winning Milwaukee club of 1944 sent no fewer than 15 men to big league training camps.

Del Webb, who picked him out, knew Stengel when he had the Bees, and in Kansas City in 1945 saw what he could do with poor material. Owner Webb kept close tab on him in Oakland during the campaign just closed, when his Pacific Coast League entry won the pennant with 114 victories, and copped both play-offs.

"Casey works at his trade," explains Contractor Webb. "He's a 24-hour-a-day manager. After a night game in Oakland we talked until 1 o'clock in the morning, and the next morning at 8 Casey was out on the field hitting grounders to young infielders."

In fairness to Stengel, it must be said that he never had a fair shake as a National League manager. During his three years in Brooklyn—1934 through '36—the Dodgers were in hock. During his six seasons in Boston—'38 through '43—Bob Quinn barely managed to stay a step ahead of the sheriff.

Stengel specialized in laughing off bad major league ball clubs. He may have to do the same thing for the Yankees.

There is danger there of a lot of athletes growing old all at once.

All the New York Americans need is pitching, catching, infielding and outfielding.

And now that Stengel at last has money at his disposal, there is only one major league organization selling players—the Browns.

There are a million Stengel stories, but let's save them for the Hot Stove League.

There is some inclination to criticize Stengel's appointment because he has a sense of humor and spins a yarn better than he knows. The fault-finders are those who would make baseball a deadly serious business, which it isn't.

No one can pick any flaws in Stengel's baseball background. John McGraw of the Giants was the biggest single influence in his life.

"He carried me on three pennant-winners—1921-22-23," he says, with pardonable pride. McGraw gave the Phillies $75,000 worth of players for Stengel when money meant something.

Casey Stengel may be a Dodger at heart, but he makes a lot of baseball sense.

And he was never dull, which is more than can be said for a lot of baseball managers.

Annual Hoop Meeting In City Sunday

B.C. Amateur Basketball Association will hold its annual meeting at the Hotel Douglas on Sunday afternoon at 4. All city and up-land official delegates are asked to be in attendance.

K.V.'s, Y.M.C.A. Cagers Jockey For Loop Lead Tonight

Senior A basketball returns to the Vic High gym tonight with K.V.'s and Y.M.C.A., both undefeated, tangling for the league lead in the feature of a three-game set. Preliminaries will see Mount Solmie and Thillicums, junior boys, open the card at 7, and Elks and Spencers of the intermediate A boys' loop meet an hour later.

K.V.'s are currently riding a two-game winning streak, and another win tonight would give them a game and a half lead at the top of the standings. "Y" on the other hand have only played one tilt in the young season, but a decision would create a tie for the league leadership.

Big Johnny Clark, ace bucketman is expected to carry the brunt of the "Y" attack, and will be helped out by Red Mason, Reg Clarkson and Dick Chugranes on the forward line. Vic Dale and Rookie Wright handle the guard positions, while young Vince Clarkson will be in reserve, filling in at any position.

Orangeshirts have a speedy squad lined up for the tussle, featuring Ralph Anderson at centre, with Freddy Ranson and Ron Castner as forwards, Duff McCaghey, Bob McKay, Bill Prior and Sid Watson will divide the squad's defensive chores, and Bob Hampton is the reserve forward. Game is billed to start at 9.

Dutch Swim Star Shatters Records

AMSTERDAM (AP)—Bob Bonte, 19-year-old Netherlands swimmer, Tuesday night bettered the listed world records for the 400 and 500-metre breaststroke swims.

He was clocked in 5 minutes, 40.2 seconds for 400 and 7 minutes, 10.6 for 500. The recognized standards of 5:43.8 for 400 and 7:13 for 500 were set by A. Heina of Germany.

Cage Exhibition

In an exhibition basketball tilt at St. Aidan's Hall last night, Spencers of the intermediate A loop captured a high-scoring tussle from Mount Tolmie Merchants, 68 to 60.

Floyd of losers topped the scoring parade with 22 points, while Chick Geisser was close behind for Spencers with 21.

Ketchikan Grid Team Plays Here Next Week

An interesting grid match is in store for local followers Oct. 29 at Athletic Park when Wally Smith's Oak Bay Gobblins play host to Ketchikan High in the return fixture of a two-game series. Games will be played under the floodlights, starting at 7.30.

In the first game of the series, first Canadian football game ever staged in Alaska, the local squad captured a 12 to 6 decision and are confident of taking next week's tilt. Practice sessions are held at Windsor Park each Sunday morning and Tuesday night. Coaches Don Low and Owen Gilman report the squad is shaping up well.

Majority of the squad is either present or ex-Oak Bay High stu-

Chicago Hawks Seek First Win At Boston

Chicago Black Hawks tonight hunt their first National Hockey League victory of the season. They tangle with Dit Clapper's Boston Bruins, winners of their only start this year, in Boston.

Meanwhile, Toronto Maple Leafs will be en route to Montreal, hoping to break the Forum jinx. Montreal Canadiens have not lost a home game to Leafs since last Christmas night.

Regina Caps Win Over Lethbridge; Gain Tie For Top

REGINA (CP)—Regina Capitals moved into a first-place tie with Edmonton Flyers in the Western Canada Senior Hockey League tonight with a 3 to 0 victory over Lethbridge Maple Leafs.

Before a home-town crowd of approximately 3,000 fans, Capitals marked up their second victory of the young season—a record similar to that of the Canadian champion Flyers. Flyers have rapped home 20 goals in two games while Capitals have notched nine.

Caps were able to produce the victory without the services of the veteran former professional star, Sweeney Schriener. Schriener did not dress because he now is recovering from a nose operation designed to aid his breathing.

Tacoma Rockets In Tie For Leadership Of Coast Hockey

The Tacoma Rockets moved into a tie with the Seattle Ironmen for the northern division lead of the Coast Hockey League last night by downing Los Angeles, 5 to 2, in a hard-played game before 3,000 fans, on Tacoma ice.

In the northwest's other game, the Vancouver Canucks, league champions last year, defeated the Portland Eagles, 4 to 2, to get out of the cellar for the first time this season.

The luckless Fresno Falcons continued to lose on their own ice, dropping their fourth consecutive contest of the season to the San Francisco Shamrocks. The Shamrocks rallied in the last of the third to come from behind for a 4 to 3 victory.

Duffy Turns Pro With Seattle Club

SEATTLE (AP)—Seattle Ironmen of the Pacific Coast Hockey League added another player Tuesday when Maurice Duffy, left wing of last year's Seattle team, decided to turn professional.

Manager Frank Dotten announced Duffy has signed a contract but he said the big forward won't be eligible for another two weeks. He is serving out a month's suspension for punching Referee Bill Knott last spring in a game at Vancouver.

CRICKET DRAW

BOMBAY (Reuters)—The West Indies cricket touring team's first match in India, a two-day fixture against a combined universities team, ended today in a draw. The tourists scored 309 runs for nine wickets in their first innings in reply to the universities' total of 303.

Detroit Red Wings, currently atop the league, are idle until Sunday when they play host to the Leafs.

The fortunes of Bill Tobin's Hawks so far have failed to improve since Tobin settled the Emile Francis-Al Rollins fight for the goalkeeping job by giving it to Sugar Jim Henry. They dropped the opened at Detroit 3 to 1 and were pasted 8 to 2 by Canadiens in their second game. Boston beat Toronto 4 to 1 in their first game.

O'CONNOR RECOVERS

The injury-plagued New York Rangers breathed a sigh of relief yesterday when Buddy O'Connor came out of hospital. But he won't skate for at least another 10 days.

O'Connor—who broke a rib in an auto accident Oct. 8 along with five other Rangers—will rest at his Villa La Salle, Que. home. Frank Eddolls still is in hospital with a severed tendon from the crash.

Rangers eked out a 1 to 1 tie with Montreal in their first game, lost 7 to 0 to Detroit in the second.

Leafs won only one game against Canadiens in the forum last year—a 3 to 0 shutout Christmas night.

Fencing Tournament Set For Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Pacific Northwest international fencing championships, sponsored by the British Columbia Fencing Association, will be held here Oct. 29-30, Arthur Lane of Hollywood, Calif., is defending champion.

The 30 entrants will come from San Francisco, Hollywood, Spokane, Vancouver and Victoria. George M. Braund of Vancouver, Dominion foil champion, and Robert Simpson, Vancouver, Dominion sabre champion, are among the entries.

TABLE TENNIS MEETING

Victoria Table Tennis Club will hold a meeting for all junior players, under 19 years, and any others interested, tomorrow night at 8 in the Crystal Garden. Business will include organizing and junior league for winter play.

OAK BAY PRACTICE

Oak Bay intermediate soccer team will hold a practice at Windsor Park tomorrow night at 8.

EAGLES PRACTICE

Eagles intermediate football team will hold a practice at Athletic Park tonight at 8. All players are asked to attend.

Canadian Junior Grid Final Will Give Sport Decided Lift

MONTREAL (CP)—The first official Canadian junior football championship classic in 15 years is only a month away and today the experts are looking forward to its renewal as a boost to the junior bracket of the sport.

Myer Insky, president of the Quebec Rugby Football Union and head of the committee organizing the east-west match, said it will be played Nov. 20 in the east where Toronto Argos defeated Montreal Westwards 14 to 6 in 1933, last time the official junior championship was held.

Since then, however, two games billed as for the dominion title have been played, but neither had the official sanction of the Canadian Rugby Union as this year's has. Regina Dales came east in 1937 to beat Montreal Westwards on a snow-covered field, and last year Vancouver Blue Bombers beat Hamilton Juniors in the coast city.

Site of the game will depend on who wins the Nov. 6 contest at Montreal between the Quebec champions and the Ontario little Big Four winners.

"This means a lot to junior football," said Insky today. "With a game like a Dominion championship there are sure to be big league scouts on hand.

ANNUAL AFFAIR
"It's what the boys need, an incentive. We're going to try to hold it every year, so that boys in high school will take football seriously with this goal in mind."

Since Argos won the title 15 years ago the east-west series has been put off time and again. This year Insky and his associates have a Canadian firm to sponsor the match. Profits from the game, if any, will go to charity.

Meanwhile, from Quebec west to British Columbia junior teams are sorting themselves out for the match.

In the east junior Toronto Argos are regarded as favorites. They swamped Montreal Fashions several weeks ago. Notre Dame de Grace is favored this year as Quebec provincial champion.

In the west, Calgary West End Tornados defeated Edmonton Maple Leafs 35 to 5 in a sudden-death game. This gave them the right to meet Vancouver Blue Bombers in the western junior semi-finals at a date not yet announced. Bombers, last year's western titlists, gave North Shore Lions a 9 to 0 swamping to take the British Columbia championship for the second straight year.

WESTERN FINAL
Winner of the Calgary-Vancouver match will meet the Saskatchewan-Manitoba champs in the western final. Saskatoon Hilltops, one of the highly regarded teams in the junior field, are back in their provincial final again this season. The Hilltops will play Regina Bombers in Saskatoon Saturday for the provincial crown.

Winnipeg Light Infantry look good in Manitoba with assurance of first place after winning four of five games. Winnipeg Rods, defending champions in Manitoba, will fight it out with Weston Wildcats for a play-off spot.

Fight Results

HARTFORD, Conn.—Willie Pep, 127½, Hartford, outpointed Johnny Larusso, 134, New York, 10 (non-title).

LOS ANGELES—Enrique Bolanos, 135, Mexico City, stopped Johnny "Honey Boy" Williams, 136½, New York, 7.

PORTLAND, Ore.—Joe Kahut, 186, Woodburn, Ore., outpointed Joey Maxim, 183, Cleveland, 15.

JERSEY CITY, N.J.—Rocky Graziano, 163½, New York, and Dom Youbella, 165, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., boxed 5-round exhibition.

NEW YORK—Tami Mauriello, 210, New York, stopped Roy Taylor, 182½, New York, 2.

TRENTON, N.J.—Dick Wagner, 172, Portland, Ore., knocked out Johnny Williams, 178, New York, 2.

B.C. Economy Shown Operating Near Full Peacetime Capacity

The provincial Bureau of Economics and Statistics today reported latest available statistics indicated that the economy of the province was operating at or near full peacetime capacity.

The bureau said, however, that while the over-all picture was good, not all sectors have shared in the advance.

The latest employment figures showed 426,000 persons gainfully employed at June 5, an increase of 12,000 over the same date of 1947. Unemployment at 10,000 was close to an irreducible minimum.

Comparing July, 1948, with July, 1947, employment in mining and in the manufacturing of textile products was down slightly, in transportation it was down moderately, while in manufacturing of iron and steel products it has declined appreciably. The bureau blamed the loss in iron and steel manufacturing to the reduction in shipbuilding.

On the favorable side, employment was up substantially in logging, construction, manufacturing of lumber products, pulp and paper, general manufacturing, communication, services and trade.

FARM INCOME GAINS

Despite loss from floods, the cash income from the sale of farm products for the first six months of this year was $42,000,000, up $10,000,000 over the total for the corresponding 1947 period. Higher prices were the cause of some of this increase.

Gold production during the first half of the year showed a gain of 53,238 fine ounces over the corresponding period of 1947. Coal production, expanded greatly during July and August, by the end of August had almost totaled the production for the corresponding period of 1947, despite the strikes in January and February. Consumption of electrical energy gained 12 per cent in July over the previous July.

A slight decrease in timber scaled since February has been recorded.

MEN'S CLOTHING SALES DOWN

Retail furniture, jewelry and men's clothing sales were down last July from July, 1947, but the remaining classes of stores all showed increased sales for the same period, ranging from 68.4 to 11.5 points, with an average of 31.1 points for all stores.

While Canada has experienced a 10.8 per cent increase in the number of foreign cars entering the country during the first seven months of this year, compared with the same period of last year, B.C. suffered a decline of 9 per cent.

The volume of exports passing through B.C. ports also moved in the opposite direction to the whole of Canada, the bureau said. Comparing the first half of 1948 with the corresponding period of 1947, exports through B.C. ports decreased by 14.3 per cent while for Canada as a whole they increased by 5.5 per cent. Imports however, showed increases just over 1 per cent for both B.C. and the whole of Canada.

B.C. Seeking Markets For Fruit Pulp; S. Africa Interested

Several possible outlets for British Columbia-produced berries and other fruits, which before the dollar crisis went to the United Kingdom in sulphur dioxide solutions are being investigated by the provincial trade and industry department and at the moment South Africa seems the most encouraging prospect.

Trade and Industry Minister L. H. Eyres said today that the food canners council of South Africa will make tests on B.C. fruit pulp for jam purposes. In the meantime R. O. O'Meara, trade commissioner for the province, is exploring possible markets in Venezuela, Israel and Germany. In co-operation with the Canadian commercial secretaries in Capetown and Johannesburg the B.C. trade commissioners' office surveyed market possibilities in South Africa with a view to using B.C. sulphur dioxide jam pulps in conjunction with South African jam production for the United Kingdom. This proved impracticable but a sample shipment of strawberry and raspberry pulp have been made to South Africa.

Contracts for fruit pulps were not forthcoming this year from the United Kingdom and as a result the industry in the Fraser Valley is faced with a carry-over from last year and a surplus from this year.

The statement said that there is still a possibility that the United Kingdom may take some of the fruits if a credit structure can be worked out. In the meantime the search for other markets is proceeding as an alternative and long-term program.

During the last season the provincial trade and industry department as agents for the special products board, moved more than 3,000 net tons of raspberry pulp to the British food ministry.

Capt. E. W. Kelly Celebrates 80th Birthday In City

CAPT. E. W. KELLY
... spent many years with the sea.

Capt. Edward Kelly, 95 Moss Street, former superintendent of Rithet docks and a veteran of the days of sailing ships, today celebrates his 80th birthday.

Born in India, 350 miles inland from Calcutta, Capt. Kelly spent the greater part of his life either on the sea or closely associated with it.

He was sent to England from India to attend school when he was seven, but soon decided he wanted to go to sea and in 1883 he went to London where he shipped out as a cabin boy aboard the sailing ship Canonbury to begin a career which was to take him to ports all over the world.

His first voyage aboard the Canonbury took him to Buenos Aires. Now enthused with life at sea, he began making many voyages from London.

One trip, as chief officer aboard the clipper Eme, took three years and two months to complete, during which time the Eme went to Hongkong, traded in China seas for a time, then sailed for Mauritius and Australia. From Australia, she carried a cargo of wool to Boston. Then she sailed for Scotland.

SAILED TO HAWAII

At the turn of the century, Capt. Kelly was sailing out of San Francisco to the Hawaiian Islands aboard ships of the Welch Line, including the Mohican, the George Curtis and the Andrew Welch. The voyage took anywhere from 10 to 40 days to complete, depending on the weather.

It was during these days that Capt. Kelly first touched Vancouver Island ports. He loaded coal aboard the Mohican at Ladysmith for Honolulu and brought the George Curtis here for lumber, leaving her in island waters to journey as a passenger aboard the Moana to Honolulu where he took over command of the Andrew Welch.

RECALLS 'FRISCO QUAKE

Capt. Kelly can also recall the great earthquake and fire that left San Francisco in ruins.

He had sailed from San Francisco aboard the George Curtis and was about 100 miles out when the Mindora, a four-masted schooner, rammed Capt. Kelly's ship, cutting her down to the water's edge. The second mate was killed.

It took the crippled George Curtis four days to get back to her dock in San Francisco, where Capt. Kelly found San Francisco in ruins. He had sailed just four hours before the earthquake occurred, April 17, 1906.

Capt. Kelly finally came to Victoria to stay in 1913 when he was made superintendent of the Rithet docks here, a post he held until the docks were taken over by Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd., during World War II.

After that, Capt. Kelly called an end to his working days and went into retirement. He has two daughters living in Victoria, Mrs. J. M. Fowler and Mrs. Percy Moir.

Criminal Assizes To Hear Six Cases

To date six cases are listed for hearing before the fall session of the Criminal Assizes which will open at the courthouse on Nov. 1. Jacob E. Wied, will face a charge of murder in connection with the death of his wife, who died in Royal Jubilee Hospital as the result of a knife wound in July.

Jack Hansen faces a charge of rape; Bala Singh, assault; Arthur J. Sampson and Grant Arthur Cooper, attempted rape; James Fisher and Frank Dobson, conspiracy; and Harold Horton Clarke, bigamy.

Theft of a man's suit and a woman's dress from his car parked on View Street between Quadra and Blanshard Tuesday evening was reported to city police by James Eaman, Spokane, Wash.

Joseph North Sues Victoria Ball Club

A damage action for breach of contract filed by Joseph North against the Victoria Baseball Athletic Co. Ltd., will be heard in Supreme Court next Wednesday.

Mr. North in his statement of claim contends that the Athletic Club committed a breach of contract when it refused to admit him to see a baseball game at the baseball park on June 8.

He alleges he bought two season tickets for himself and his wife for a sum of $146.30. In refusing him admission, he claims, the Athletic Club unlawfully revoked the licence granted to him.

The plaintiff, represented by P. J. Sinnott, claims the sum of $146.30 paid in advance for the season tickets. He is also applying for a mandamus compelling the defendant as a season ticket holder to attend all baseball games.

The baseball club denies it entered in a contract with Mr. North when the plaintiff purchased two season tickets.

The baseball club further claims it was justified in refusing admission to Mr. North to the baseball park by reason of his alleged misconduct.

Optimist President In Victoria Today

C. Milton Morris of Denver, Colo., the 29th president of Optimist International, arrived in Victoria today to confer with officers of the Victoria Optimist Club and to meet its members.

At 4:30 this afternoon, Mr. Morris will confer with members of the Junior Optimist Club and members of the Fairfield Boy Scout Troop, both of which operate under the sponsorship of the senior organization.

Tonight at 6:30, the international service club chief will be guest of honor at an Optimist dinner to be given in the Oak Bay Beach Hotel. Mayor Percy George will welcome the visitor to this city at this time.

Mr. Morris, a lawyer by profession, has served in Optimism as president of the Denver club, and as governor of district 10. He was elected by acclamation to the international presidency last June at the 1948 convention in San Antonio, Texas.

Last Rites Today For H. Wilkinson

Rev. O. L. Jull officiated at funeral services today from Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel for Herbert Wilkinson, well-known owner of the Wilkinson Cooperage and a resident of Victoria for the past 30 years, who died Sunday at Royal Jubilee Hospital.

Mr. Wilkinson came to Victoria in 1918 and served on the city police force before opening his own business. A native of Staffordshire, Eng., he came to Canada in 1903 with the Barr colonists.

He was a Master Mason, a Royal Arch Mason, a Knight Templar and a Shriner. Surviving are his widow, two sons, Sydney and Maurice, and one daughter, Alice May, all of Victoria.

More Canvassers Sought By Chest To Complete Drive

More volunteer canvassers will be required by the Community Chest if the house-to-house coverage of Greater Victoria, now going on in connection with the current chest campaign to raise $180,000, is to be completed on schedule this coming Saturday.

Two areas in which the need for canvassers is urgent are bounded by Fernwood Road, King's Road, Bay Street and Douglas Street, and Burnside Road, Marigold Road, Carey Road and Douglas Street.

Persons who could spend even half an hour canvassing in either of these districts should contact Community Chest headquarters, Prince Robert House, immediately.

Residents of Brentwood and North Saanich, will be canvassed next week, it was learned today.

Interesting Way To Depict Travels

Rev. F. W. Hutchinson, assistant pastor of the Open Door Spiritual Church here, has an interesting way of giving his mother a sort of "on the spot" view of his travels throughout the United States on a lecture tour. He has been on the tour since January.

Periodically Mrs. Beatrice Hutchinson, 175 Lurline Road, is in receipt of newspaper clippings which depict highlight happenings which occur in the cities and towns he visits.

Last one was from Austin, Texas, and tells about "the most hectic half hour in Austin's history" for the police force. It concerned two drunks falling from the same spot on a bridge within 20 minutes, two ambulances colliding with other cars, a driverless car speeding downhill and a woman having a baby while on a shopping tour.

Rocket Bomb Offensive Would Need Aid Of Strong Air Force

LONDON (CP)—Rocket bombs can be used for prolonged offensive only if supported by strong air forces to protect installations and supply lines from enemy attack.

This is the deduction drawn from the official report of Air Chief Marshal Sir Roderic Hill, who organized Britain's defences against the flying bomb and rocket in the final stages of the war. The report was published today.

Massed anti-aircraft batteries and speedy fighter aircraft were used against the flying bomb until from one-half to three-quarters of all those approaching Britain were shot down. Operations against rockets were limited largely to trying to locate firing points and then attacking them fiercely.

SAL HEPATICA

The GENTLE, SPEEDY LAXATIVE that gives FAST RELIEF

Also combats EXCESS GASTRIC ACIDITY

Sir Roderic says the German rocket offensive "must be regarded merely as a harassing attack," although in seven months 2,511 persons were killed and 5,869 injured by it in London alone.

Because of her air superiority, Britain always had means of keeping the rocket offensive under control, Sir Roderic maintains.

"For if the enemy had begun to fire at a much greater rate, he could no longer have lived from hand to mouth. He would have been obliged to store rockets and fuel in bulk near the firing area. Valuable bombing targets then would have been offered to us."

ERROR OF NAZIS

Sir Roderic says the Germans who developed the flying bomb "may be pardoned for a certain lack of judgment if they fancied themselves on the brink of changes comparable to those which followed the rifled barrel and the machine-gun."

"If... the flying bomb and the A-4 rocket were to be regarded as a substitute for a strategic bomber force, the cardinal mistake was to suppose these novel weapons could be used effectively in the absence of air superiority, which alone could have provided reasonable immunity from air attack."

Kennedy Takes Over Leadership Of Ontario Government From Drew

TORONTO (CP)—A 70-year-old farmer who refers to himself as "the old war horse"—Thomas Laird Kennedy—Tuesday succeeded George A. Drew as premier of Ontario. Mr. Kennedy also will continue as agriculture minister, while Mr. Drew assumes his new role as national leader of the Progressive Conservative Party.

Mr. Kennedy was sworn in by Lieutenant-Governor Ray Lawson, along with his cabinet, in which three changes were made from the cabinet which served with Mr. Drew before the provincial election last June 7.

Criticism Levelled At Absent Alderman In Arena Question

One man who has come in for criticism in recent weeks over the complicated arena question was not among five members of the City Council present at the Kiwanis Club luncheon at the Empress Hotel Tuesday when Ald. Waldo Skillings endeavored to answer a number of questions.

Ald. Ed. Williams, senior member of the council and the only original member of the arena committee on the council, will not return to Victoria until Friday from a six-months' visit to England. Present at the luncheon in addition to Ald. Skillings were Mayor Percy George and Aldermen F. N. Cabell, Harold Diggon and Frank Mulliner.

In Ald. Skillings' talk on the arena, and in recent discussions elsewhere, Ald. Williams was pointed to as the man who talked the city into acting as its own contractor in construction of walls and seats at the unfinished rink.

This, it has been stated by members of the Victoria Builders' Exchange, and others, is one of the main reasons why the arena is not in operation today.

AGAINST POLICY

Ald. Skillings impressed upon his listeners that he was against the city taking on the job when he was appointed arena committee chairman at the start of this year.

"I did not think it was sound policy," he said.

But, Ald. Skillings continued, Ald. Williams said prices from private contractors would be too high.

William Hamilton, a member of the Builders' Exchange and the Kiwanis Club, expressed surprise during a discussion period at the close of Ald. Skillings' talk, that Ald. Williams, who also is a member of the exchange, was responsible for the city taking on the contract.

"It is silly to think any municipality can do a major construction job cheaper than a contractor," he said.

Victor L. Leigh, past president of the exchange, congratulated the city "for admitting you are wrong" in taking on the job. He was glad to see work had been halted and tenders are to be called for completion of the work.

Wider Purchases Of Savings Bonds

OTTAWA (CP)—Series 3 of Canada saving bonds—the peacetime successor to Victory Bonds—showed purchases through the payroll savings plan amounting to $15,380,100, compared with $12,906,800 at the same date last year, the Bank of Canada announced Tuesday.

Payroll savings sales indicate purchases from 78,007 individuals, an increase of more than 11,000 over the number of employee purchases at the same date last year. Average purchase is $197.16 compared with $193.32.

A total of $1,066,850 has been contracted for by civil service employees, an increase of more than $500,000. In the sales by provinces, Ontario leads with an increase of more than $1,000,000 in sales through the payroll savings plan.

To Allow Imports Of Many Vitamins

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Abbott announced Tuesday night that Canada's import barriers will be lifted enough this winter to allow in supplies of fresh lettuce, tomatoes, cabbages, carrots, celery, spinach and grapes.

In addition, larger quantities of citrus fruits and fruit juices will be permitted entry.

Mr. Abbott said the relaxation of the import controls, imposed last November as part of the dollar-saving austerity program, is being made possible by the "continued" improvement in Canada's foreign exchange reserves.

The Minister said these relaxations would be timed "so as not to prejudice the normal marketing of Canadian produce."

...the ELECTRIC BLANKET

WH. IS AN ELECTRIC BLANKET? A blanket which looks, feels and launders like an ordinary blanket, but which uses electric current, thermostatically controlled and completely safeguarded, to distribute gentle warmth to the degree required evenly and continuously over the entire area of the bed.

HOW DOES IT DIFFER FROM AN ORDINARY BLANKET? An ordinary blanket merely retards the escape of warmth that the body creates. If the temperature goes down, you have to pile on more covers or be uncomfortable. It is difficult to sleep well under a heavy burden of blankets. An electric blanket produces its own warmth and maintains the same even temperature in spite of changes in the weather, so the user can relax completely without expending energy in keeping warm. One light-weight electric blanket will take the place of three or more ordinary blankets and comforters.

HOW DOES IT DIFFER FROM A HEATING PAD? A heating pad gives concentrated heat over a small area, and does not compensate for changing room temperatures. An electric blanket spreads gentle warmth over the entire bed area, and will maintain the warmth to which the control is set, regardless of changes in room temperature. Some makes of electric blanket are equipped with two sets of controls, so that two persons under one blanket may each adjust the temperature to suit their individual requirements.

HOW DOES IT OPERATE? It is simply plugged into a wall socket and the thermostatic control is set to the temperature required. This control does not have to be adjusted unless a different degree of warmth is required.

IS AN ELECTRIC BLANKET SAFE? Definitely. It is so constructed that it cannot overheat. Even if you forget to turn off the control switch, no harm would be done. The electric circuits are completely waterproof, so the blanket is safe for use even with small children.

IS IT EASY TO CLEAN? Yes. It can be washed at home by hand or in the washing machine, or it can be sent to the laundry. It launders beautifully... just like any fine blanket... but it should not be dry-cleaned.

WHAT DOES IT COST TO OPERATE? On the average, one cent a night for the small amount of electricity required. Electric blankets really save you money, because you require only one to each bed, and you can let the room cool down on chilly nights.

Dean Luxton To Be Bishop Of Huron

LONDON, Ont. (CP)—Very Rev. George N. Luxton, dean of Huron and rector of St. Paul's Cathedral here, was elected Bishop of Huron to succeed the late Archbishop Seager. Dean Luxton was chosen Tuesday on the second ballot at the special synod session.

Dean Luxton led on the first ballot, Archdeacon W. A. Townsend, registrar and secretary-treasurer of the synod, taking second place.

The new bishop became nationally known in the Anglican Church of Canada as an orator before being appointed here in May, 1944. At that time he was rector of Grace Church-on-the-Hill, Toronto. In the early 30s he became widely known for his radio sermons while rector of Christ Church, Calgary.

Outspoken in his views, he started a wide controversy in 1944 through comments he made before the Toronto Synod on sex education and general disease control. He said synod endorsement of such measures overlooked the armed forces "in which there ought to be an intensive Christian approach."

VICTORIA COLLEGE APPOINTMENTS—Margaret Mawer and Dale Kilshaw, above, have been appointed to the Victoria College Students' Council and will be formally introduced to the students at the annual meeting of the Alma Mater Society tomorrow afternoon at the college. Their first duties will be to plan the mid-term dance to take place early in November. (Photos by Fort, Cowx-Macphail)

Two Victoria artists, Mrs. S. Hobbs and Mrs. Unity Baile, are exhibiting this week at the Art Gallery and Studio, Douglas Street.

Mrs. Hobbs was one of Victoria's hardest workers to establish the Federation of Artists in Victoria, when she and Mr. Hobbs assisted as secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Hobbs is a graduate of South Kensington School of Art, London, England, where she taught also, before coming to Victoria. Mrs. Baile graduated from the Slade School of Art in London, England.

Policeman Uses Magic To Help Save Lives In Kentucky

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—A policeman who pulls safety slogans and rabbits out of the hat is applying magic to saving young lives in Kentucky streets and highways.

State Police Lieut. Lee Allen Estes, a master magician and ventriloquist, tours the school circuit with a truck load of tricks that carry home his safety warnings.

He operates on the theory that a lesson must be heard to be learned. As a county patrolman 12 years ago he watched children yawn through a safety lecture. He convinced his chief he could make the words stick by demonstrating them with a trick.

The lecture comes first in his school program. He times it to last only as long as little ears will listen to admonitions. Just before the Houdini of the highways "loses" his audience, he digs into his tricks. His favorite trick involves a chalk-drawn pig on a small slate. He draws the pig and then makes it turn its head from side to side, the idea being that children should always look both ways before crossing a street.

POP-EYED DUMMY

After emptying eight trunks loaded with similar stunts, Lieut. Estes brings on a pop-eyed, big-mouth dummy wearing a state police uniform to finish the show. The dummy is Willie Talk, who sasses like Charley McCarthy but jabbars safety talk that the children listen to with glee.

Lieut. Estes estimates he has carried his magic safety show to more than a million children and adults in travelling 120,000 miles.

Kentucky's record for accidental death of children on highways is at the bottom of the list for all the states and he likes to feel he has played some part in that, the police lieutenant-magician says.

Boy Had Lucky Escape At Switch On Railway Line

REGINA (CP)—Two-year-old Freddie Atherton plays with his toy engine, looks at pictures of trains and says he likes them.

But when he goes for a walk with his parents near the railway line, he draws back and says: "I'm scared, mommie."

About a month ago, Freddie wandered from his home to play in a field near a railway line.

He and two playmates saw a horse on the other side of the tracks.

Freddie ran up the embankment to the tracks just as a train was approaching.

Signal operators in a nearby tower had just set the apparatus in motion to close the derail mechanism to allow the train to pass through.

At the moment the mechanism was closing on the track, Freddie placed his hand down to climb over.

His hand was caught. The train was coming.

Freddie began to cry and his playmates, screaming, ran to pry him loose. His mother, watching from their home hurried to the scene.

She, too, tried to get him loose. Neighbors gathered. Then an unidentified youth ran toward the signal tower.

He shouted: "A kid's caught in the derail!" The operators moved quickly.

The signal was thrown against the approaching train and the engine came to a stop a short distance from the child.

When his hand was released, Freddie was taken to hospital, where it was found the fingers were crushed but the bones were not broken.

Freddie Atherton apprehensively eyes his fingers, on which the fingernails now are growing back, when he goes near the tracks now, and he says: "I'm scared, mommie."

$14,000 Damage In Mine Camp Fire

QUESNEL (CP)—The Mueller and Harper mining camp at Windgarden, B.C., 25 miles east of here in the Cariboo district, was partially destroyed by fire Tuesday. The damage is estimated at $14,000.

Volunteer fire fighters from nearby Wells saved the large bunkhouse and three smaller buildings from the flames.

The fire, first noticed by elderly Frank McArthur, apparently started in dry sawdust and debris at the mine.

McArthur lost his home and all his possessions in the blaze.

Roland Winters, the star, and other members of the cast of Monogram's "The Chinese Ring," latest of the Charlie Chan pictures now playing at the Rio Theatre, were dinner guests of Victor Sen Young, Chinese actor, after shooting was completed. The dinner was held in Young's home, and everyone ate with chop sticks. Young portrays Charlie's son.

'Walls Of Jericho' Opens At Royal

Starring Cornel Wilde, Linda Darnell, Anne Baxter and Kirk Douglas with a cast of outstanding supporting players, "The Walls of Jericho," Twentieth Century-Fox's eagerly-awaited filmization of Paul I. Wellman's sensational best-seller, opens today at the Royal Theatre. A probing and provocative story set against the background of color and violence of the High Plains country as it emerged from raw frontier days into the early 1900's, the film provides its quartette of top stars with their most challenging roles to date.

"The Walls of Jericho" unfolds the dramatic and suspenseful tale of the bitter battle for power between two men, and of a girl's yearning for a love that took root in the oppressive atmosphere of a town that couldn't hold it.

Uncle Sam's Right To Bar Handouts By Radio Argued

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission of the United States put in a hard day's work trying to find the answer to questions like this: Does a person have the right to give away refrigerators—and the kitchen sink—on radio programs? This all came up because the F.C.C. doesn't like give-away programs.

And so it has issued an order which would knock many of these shows off radio. But it held a hearing Tuesday to see whether it was right in putting out such a regulation.

The answer? Yes and no, depending on who was answering. Bruce Bromley appeared for the American Broadcasting Company. He said no, as did many another radio lawyer.

Paul Porter appeared for radio station WTTB, Baltimore. He said yes.

The ABC has a Sunday night show, "Stop the Music," which sometimes passes out as much as $30,000 worth of booty in a single night. It would be barred if the order was strictly enforced.

Bromley argued that Congress had not given the F.C.C. the right to rule on lotteries. If anything was illegal, he said, let the Justice Department draw up the charges.

Furthermore, said Bromley, these shows aren't lotteries. "The Supreme Court," he said, "has ruled that to gamble means to squander or fritter away money. All our listeners lose is the opportunity to listen to some other program."

But Porter took the opposite view. "I think it's not only the right, but the duty of this body to interfere," Porter said.

He called the give-aways "a cancerous growth on American broadcasting."

"If this sort of thing is allowed to continue," said Porter gloomily, "we're bound to wind up with still another show."

"It'll be called, 'You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet!'"

Popular Ballad Revived In Film

Second generation actors in Hollywood are not uncommon, but second generations in music are not too ordinary. The orchestra leader in the country club sequence is Rudolf Friml Jr. of Warner Bros. music department, and son of the great composer of "Rose Marie," "The Vagabond King" and "The Three Musketeers."

On the musical side, too, is the insertion of the song, "I May Be Wrong," as a part of the plot development of "Wallflower," which is now being shown at the Atlas Theatre.

CAPITOL THEATRE

For the 10th time in his acting career, Joseph Crehan plays President Grant. The actor plays this familiar role for the Errol Flynn-Ann Sheridan, Warner Bros. starrer, "Silver River," currently at the Capitol Theatre.

Dragon lizards feed on deer, wild boar and water buffalo.

New Play Opens In London, Ontario

NEW YORK (CP) — Richard Aldrich, producer of "Goodbye My Fancy," says he is opening the comedy in London, Ont., because he likes Canadian audiences.

"They are very receptive, eager and enthusiastic; not as worn and weary as audiences in Boston and other cities in the United States," he said. And he predicted many more shows in future will have their initial try-outs in Canadian cities.

Aldrich added that he chose London's Grand Theatre for the Fay Kanin play's world premiere Oct. 21 "because London is a very theatre-conscious town and the London Little Theatre is one of the best-operated little theatres in Canada."

"Goodbye My Fancy," starring Madeleine Carroll in her first North American stage appearance, will run three days in London and then play a week in Toronto and in Detroit before coming to Broadway.

For Bad Cough, Mix This Splendid Recipe, at Home

You'll be pleasantly surprised when you make up this easily prepared mixture and try it for a distressing cough. It is no trouble to mix, and costs but a trifle, yet it can be depended upon to give quick relief.

Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water for a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. (Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey instead of sugar syrup.) Get a 2½ ounce bottle of Pinex from any druggist, put it into a 16 ounce bottle and fill it up with your syrup. The 16 ounces thus made gives you four times as much cough medicine for your money, and is a very effective relief for coughs. Keeps perfectly and tastes fine.

This splendid mixture soothes the irritated membranes, loosens the phlegm and helps to clear the air passages. Thus it makes breathing easy, and lets you get restful sleep.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known as a soothing agent for winter coughs. Money refunded if not pleased in every way.

Aussie Government To Operate State Shipping Company

SYDNEY, Australia (CP)—
The federal government plans to establish a government shipping line to operate along the Australian coast, and to limit private shipping companies using Australian-built ships.

The plan was outlined in a letter sent by the minister for fuel and shipping, Senator Ashley, to a ships committee of a small coastal shipping line.

The letter stated the federal government intends to introduce legislation for the establishment of an Australian Shipping Board on a permanent basis and the setting up of a Commonwealth line of steamers, together with other measures to provide for the establishment and encouragement of the shipping and shipbuilding industries in Australia.

Senator Ashley refused to comment on the plan, but admitted he wrote the letter.

The federal government's previous venture into the shipping world proved a failure. A former government operated a line of ships that lost $20,000,000 before it was sold.

Stock Market Trading Steady As October Advance Continues

By CANADIAN PRESS
Stock markets continued their October advance Tuesday as trading rolled along at a steady clip.

What traders consider a good omen—upturn in prices as volume was exactly the same.
Favorable corporation news has helped the improvement. These improvements in particular groups when corporate news was received might be attributed to short-term traders.

Many observers maintain the market must obtain the confidence of the public before the present steady climb can be accelerated.

Monday was a strong day in

New York, with volume exceeding 1,000,000 shares, but to some observers it appears the public did not move into the market Tuesday as action was fitful and volume was exactly the same.
However, the slow rise continued.

In Toronto, trading climbed steadily Tuesday to 1,246,000 shares, highest since early September and the industrial component of the Exchange's index showed a good gain over the two days. Specialties were in the limelight in Tuesday's trading, with several issues touching new highs.

Grain markets showed a slightly easier tone Tuesday. Cotton futures closed 35 cents a bale higher to 15 cents lower.

Russia Nears 1940 Production Level With Inefficient Workers

WASHINGTON (AP) — An authoritative diplomatic report says low productivity of Russian labor is one of the most serious drags on Soviet industrial recovery.

"Soviet labor takes more man hours to do a given job than labor in any other developed country," says the document.

However, the report concludes that despite low quality of labor and other handicaps, Russia as a whole now is producing nearly the same total of goods as in 1940.

COAL AND MINERALS

The report does not estimate how close Russia has come, even at this production rate, to disposing of all the shortages built up during the war. It continues:

1. Russia has surpassed its pre-war level in production of coal, aluminum, copper, nickel, electric power and all types of machinery.

2. Most other branches of basic industry are producing much less than before the war.
The most serious shortages are in steel, cement and timber.

3. Steel scarcity is the bottleneck in the entire economy of Russia. Largely because of it, the whole construction industry has been in the doldrums for the last two years. Yet enormous construction projects, entailing heavy outlays of steel, cement and timber, are needed to increase steel-making capacity.

BEHIND SCHEDULE
The present plan for raising the output of iron and steel is behind schedule, says the analyst who wrote the report, and prospects are that increases next year will not be large.

Next to steel, railroad transportation probably is the most serious bottleneck. The Russians are feverishly building new rail lines, new freight cars and locomotives. Yet the railroads are still operating at only 75 per cent of 1940 levels.

And railroads are enormously important to Russian industry.
Practically speaking highways do not exist. Truck deliveries are made only in and around cities, from rail heads to users.

MALNUTRITION SEEN

Partly to blame for the shortcomings of Soviet workers, the analyst says, is the low standard of living, causing malnutrition, bad health and inefficiency.
Housing and consumer goods are so scarce, he says, that workers have little incentive to exert themselves to earn more money, and they often seem to feel they are being exploited by their government.

The mass of workers and supervisory personnel, he continues, are technically incompetent, most of them former farmers. The large majority have to be laboriously taught even to drive an automobile.

The report cites two other reasons for low productivity: lack of up-to-date machinery and equipment, and poor organization and excessive bureaucracy.

The writer of the report, however, cautions that the government's rigid control of industry enables it to channel the total effort toward lines most useful to the state. The cream of Russia's labor force is well trained and efficient. The best workers are skimmed off and put into industries which the government is stressing. These industries are given ample supplies of scarce materials.

Champion Baker Doffs His Hat To Canadian Pies

LONDON (CP)—Charles Lawton, 45-year-old London baker, has just been crowned champion bread-maker of England and Wales but he thinks more of his Canadian wife's pie-making abilities than his own prowess.

After Lawton's loaf was proclaimed best at a bakers' exhibition—he also used to be a champion cyclist—he would say little about himself. But he was eager to tell of his 48-year-old wife's lemon and pumpkin pies which she learned to bake in Tavistock,
Ont., as a girl.

As for bread, he considered the perfect loaf should have a good appearance with crisp crust. It must cut well and the crumb must not break or tear; it must be easy to butter and when a wife runs her finger over it, it must give the same velvety feeling she would get from the feel of a good silk stocking.

The Lawtons have been operating their bakery in the Black-friars area of London since before the war. They kept operating through the blitz and thousands of Canadian and United States service men came to know Mrs. Lawton's pies on invitations to their home. They still correspond with many.

The couple still have a Canadian connection through two daughters—Mrs. R. Yeager of Aylmer, Ont., wife of a Canadian airman, and Miss Eunice Battenburg, a daughter of Mrs. Lawton's by a former marriage.

Lawton, who won the gold medal for cycling at Herne Hill in 1924, took time off from his baking during the Olympic Games to act as starter in all the Olympic cycle races.

Employees Endorse Strike To Enforce Security Demands

Employees of the National Biscuit and Confection Co. Ltd., Vancouver, have overwhelmingly voted in favor of strike action to support their claim for maintenance of a union security clause in their collective agreement.

The result of the vote, according to the Labor Relations Board today, was 112 for strike action and 39 against. One hundred and fifty-one of the 171 employees eligible voted.

The employees voted to enforce the recommendations contained in a minority report of a recent conciliation board. Herbert Gargrave, C.C.F. member of the legislature for Mackenzie, in his minority report recommended no change in the 1947 contract which provided that every employee joining the company after June 1, 1947, must become a union member as a condition of employment.

The majority report, signed by A. M. Harper and Ian Cameron, both of Vancouver, recommended the maintenance of membership clause be replaced by the Rand formula, which provides that all employees must pay dues to the union although they do not become members of the union.

The strike vote was supervised by Stuart Willisroft of the Labor Relations Board staff.

Discuss Plans For Formation Of Youth Council In City

Held under the auspices of the teen-age committee of the city welfare council, a discussion was held at the Y.M.C.A. last night on the question of forming a youth council in the Victoria area.

As a result, the first organization meeting will be held at the "Y" Nov. 2, and chairman Bob Morrison is sending out invitations to various youth groups in the city to attend the gathering.

It was pointed out that the proposed council would be completely organized and operated by the young people and would be a great asset so far as solving problems of the city's younger set are concerned.

Young people have a greater knowledge of their own problems than adults these days, and the forming of such a group would enable them to get to the basis of these problems themselves.

Freeman King, Boy Scout commissioner for Victoria, stated however, that in order to be successful in the forming of such an organization, leaders should be obtained and trained in order for it to run smoothly.

"Our efforts should be directed toward finding adult leaders and finding leaders of youth who will help them," he said.

Functions of the council were pointed out by Mr. Morrison. He stated that if the various organizations unite into one group, much more will be accomplished than if they try to work out the problems in separate groups. This council would give young people good experience in dealing with social problems, it would keep adults aware of the needs of youth and would also benefit youth so that they might serve the community. Proposed council would meet once a month.

British Railways New Canadian Head

Iain W. Lang (above) has been appointed Canadian representative to the British Railways, with headquarters in Toronto, it has been announced by T. D. Slattery, resident vice-president of the British and Irish Railways organization in North America. He succeeds S. G. Clarke who has returned to the British and Irish Railways, New York Office.

Born in Glasgow, Scotland, Mr. Lang had a long and varied career with the Canadian Pacific Railway before joining the British Railways. Joining the C.P.R. in Glasgow, he was appointed assistant cruise director and for a number of years served as traveling passenger agent in the Far East, with headquarters at Hongkong. During World War II, he served with the Royal Canadian Navy and was discharged with the rank of commander. He returned to the Canadian Pacific as passenger agent in New York, the position he now vacates.

New Water System Agreement Ready Early Next Week

An agreement being drafted by City Solicitor A. J. Patton under which the Greater Victoria Water Board will function, probably will be ready for the members of the board—the city, Saanich and Esquimalt—to study next week.

Mr. Patton said today the agreement is requiring a great deal of work, but he expects to have it completed early next week.

The agreement will be studied by the municipalities and signing will follow, after which the board, comprising Mayor Percy George, Ald. F. N. Cabellu and Ald. Charles Banfield for the city, Reeve E. C. Warren for Saanich and Reeve A. I. Thomas for Esquimalt, will take final organization steps.

The board plans to commence operations at the start of the new year.

First a commissioner will be named. He may have an assistant. Other personnel will be required, also office space.

No official action has been taken on selection of a commissioner. Several names have been mentioned in off-the-record talks.

Work of the board will be to bring adequate supplies of water to Greater Victoria. The individual municipalities will look after connections and distribution within the boundaries of each.

V.M.D. Readjusts Its Facilities In Move For Economy

Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd., is rearranging some of its shipyard facilities between No. 2 yard at the outer wharves and the No. 1 Bay Street yard, it was learned today.

Reason for these rearrangements is purely economic and a senior officer of the firm today discounted rumors that V.M.D. intended to withdraw from the No. 2 site. "There is no question of abandonment," he said, referring to the No. 2 yard.

In line with this readjustment of facilities between the two yards, a certain amount of rehabilitation work is being done to the original Bay Street yard, from where V.M.D. expanded during World War II to include the Rithet docks.

Advise Veterans On Hospital Insurance

Veterans in receipt of war veterans' allowance must send their B.C. Hospital Insurance exemption claims direct to Victoria, not to the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

Officials of the D.V.A. stated today they "are being flooded" with exemption forms sent to V.V.A. recipients for signature by the provincial authorities. These forms should go to the registrar, B.C. Hospital Insurance Service, Victoria, B.C.

Only veterans drawing W.V.A. or D.V.A. training allowances while attending school or university are entitled to claim exemption from paying the insurance premium. They must, however, pay into the plan for any dependents.

Police Hold Man After Esquimalt Smash-Grab Theft

Police are holding a man in custody today on a charge of breaking and entering and committing theft at Mullin's Jewelry Store, 1303 Esquimalt Road, at 2.30 this morning.

It is believed the man was one of two or three who broke a six by seven-foot plate-glass window in the store and snatched approximately $200 worth of goods, mostly wrist watches, and fled in an automobile.

The theft was interrupted by J. W. Mullin, owner of the store, who lives in the back of the building. Mr. Mullin heard the breaking glass, grabbed a gun and yelled. He said he caught a glimpse of a car pulling away, but could not be sure how many men there were.

THIRD SMASH AND GRAB
The robbery is the third of the smash-and-grab type in Greater Victoria in the past month. The Radiolounge, 2180 Oak Bay Avenue, and Marconi's Hardware, North Quadra Street, were robbed when plate-glass windows were smashed.

The man being held was apprehended by Constables George Buckle and Robert Morris of the city police department as he ran down an alley next to the New England Hotel at 3.10 this morning, 40 minutes after the Esquimalt robbery.

Police report the man had in his possession a lady's wrist watch, valued at less than $25, believed to be part of the loot from Mullin's store.

MAY CHANGE ELECTION
Alexander McNaughton, charged in police court today with receiving stolen goods, a quantity of cigarettes, was remanded until Monday when Sinclair Elliott, counsel for the accused, indicated that McNaughton may change his previous election for trial in a higher court and be tried before the police court magistrate.

City First Stop In Woman's Hunt For New Travels

Victoria Thursday morning will be the first point of contact on the air journey of an American woman who will cover thousands of miles and touch 11 countries in a trip designed to find new travel adventures for the world at large and more specifically the 73,000 members of Beta Sigma Phi scattered over the Dominion of Canada, the U.S.A. and Great Britain.

Melita O'Hara, native Canadian, who owns her own travel agency in Seattle, is making the trip to assess the various courses at universities in Great Britain, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, France and Ireland, that are open to personnel of the armed forces in Canada and also the U.S. under the G.I. Bill of Rights during 1949. She will also investigate the hidden possibilities of off-season travel.

V.M.D. To Replace Boiler On Elizabeth

The C.P.R.'s B.C. Coast Service vessel Princess Elizabeth is due in at Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd., Thursday for a boiler replacement. H. S. Hammill, V.M.D. general manager, said today.

The coast passenger ship will be in at V.M.D. for nearly three weeks while the replacement is made.

Other B.C.C.S. ships with which V.M.D. is dealing include the Kathleen, now undergoing minor engine repairs by V.M.D. workmen at her own docks. She will be out again in a few days.

The Princess Adelaide, which has been taken out of service, went to V.M.D.'s No. 2 yard this morning for storage and is expected to be joined shortly by Ss. Princess Alice.

Loading At Cowichan
Ss Empire Byng is at Cowichan Bay today loading 600,000 feet of lumber for the United Kingdom, according to Cecil Ridout, manager of King Bros. Ltd., shipping agents.

ROBS CHILD'S BANK
A thief who gained entrance to the home of William Burns, 1923 Quadra Street, by jimmying a kitchen window with a hand axe Tuesday evening escaped with five Canadian silver dollars and $10 taken from a child's bank, police report.

Held under the auspices of the teen-age committee of the city welfare council, a discussion was held at the Y.M.C.A. last night on the question of forming a youth council in the Victoria area.

As a result, the first organization meeting will be held at the "Y" Nov. 2, and chairman Bob Morrison is sending out invitations to various youth groups in the city to attend the gathering.

It was pointed out that the proposed council would be completely organized and operated by the young people and would be a great asset so far as solving problems of the city's younger set are concerned.

Young people have a greater knowledge of their own problems than adults these days, and the forming of such a group would enable them to get to the basis of these problems themselves.

Freeman King, Boy Scout commissioner for Victoria, stated however, that in order to be successful in the forming of such an organization, leaders should be obtained and trained in order for it to run smoothly.

"Our efforts should be directed toward finding adult leaders and finding leaders of youth who will help them," he said.

Functions of the council were pointed out by Mr. Morrison. He stated that if the various organizations unite into one group, much more will be accomplished than if they try to work out the problems in separate groups. This council would give young people good experience in dealing with social problems, it would keep adults aware of the needs of youth and would also benefit youth so that they might serve the community. Proposed council would meet once a month.
